June 2016 Program

 Celebration -Let's all celebrate and have a good time...come on! It's time to get together...There's a party goin' on right here...so bring your good times, and your laughter too...We're gonna celebrate your party with you.

Note: Glendale Quilt Guild's actual birth month is January, but scheduling has pushed our celebration forward to June.

Tonight, find your place at a table matching your birth month and chat with members celebrating birthdays the same month. (Adult coloring pages and pencils will be there for your pleasure.)

congratulations

First, let's celebrate our new board with the installation of officers.

Then we will celebrate past presidents and recognize quilters' years of membership.

IT'S PARTY TIME

Every party needs gifts and prizes, so we will play a game, Left-Right, to find some winners. Be sure to notice your gift of See's Candy. And, of course, a birthday celebration includes cake and ice cream which we hope you will enjoy. Bring a soda if you like.

So let's all celebrate and have a good time!

Bring Your Challenge Quilts to the June Meeting

Let's celebrate members and their annual challenge quilts while Cindy Abrams introduces the challenge quilt for this year. We invite members to bring their past years' challenges for display around the room—some of the previous challenges were Batik Oasis, Two-Color Crayon, Holiday Smashup, Favorite Things, and more. (Please let Karen Millman know what you are bringing so we can plan display areas (818/241-3288 or KarenLMillman@gmail.com.)

Proposed Bylaws Revisions

The details of the proposed changes and a shorter summary of the changes are posted on the Guild's website giving all members one month to review the proposed changes prior to voting at the General Membership meeting in June. Go to www.glendalequiltguild.org/bylaws.html

The President's Block

Hello, everyone!

It's June! The last month of our fiscal year. It's also the beginning of summer time. School will soon be out for vacation and the warmer, summer weather will arrive. Are you ready?

This month our meeting is a Guild event, with the Installation of Officers for the new year and our Programs Team has planned a special Birthday event for us. Make sure to join us. Don't forget to bring a quilt for Show & Tell. I love to see the wonderful quilts our members are making each month and it inspires me to keep busy quilting.

For the past few weeks, I have been in Seattle with my grandsons, while their parents were away for a well-deserved vacation. While the boys are wonderful and I had a great time with them, I found that I had forgotten how positively "busy" their days actually become. Beginning with school schedules, after school activities, birthday parties, theater and soccer classes, not to mention taking care of a cat, two dogs, five chickens along with the inevitable chores of maintaining a large house. Plus, in our "spare time", we kept busy with trips to the beach to collect sea glass, picnics and hikes in local parks. The weather was absolutely beautiful and we loved being outside, eating meals on the deck, or just playing in the back yard. I spent lots of time in the swing. One day, my youngest grandson asked to have a PJ Day, so we spent one day at home in our pajamas, building legos and playing video games. That was a day to put the slow cooker to work & just enjoy doing fun things at home. Since coming back home, I find my days are much quieter and I feel the need to get busy. I plan to channel this renewed energy into quilting and reorganizing my studio area. Hopefully, the "buzz" created by my grandsons will continue to motivate me in the months to come.

June is also my last month as your President. It has been an honor to serve you, the members of the Glendale Quilt Guild, for the past two years. I must admit that it has been a very interesting time for me. Through it all, I had the privilege of working with a wonderful group of people on the Executive Board and Extended Board. They helped to make my job much easier as we handled the business side of the Guild. While we encountered a few challenges, we faced them and persevered. With your support, our Guild continues to remain strong and successful. I am very happy to be a member of this Guild and confident that it will continue to thrive for many years to come. Thank you for your confidence and support during my terms of office. As the new Executive Board takes over next month, I ask that you show them the same courtesy and support that I received. They will be sure to succeed for you.

Now, I will shift my focus to helping prepare for Quilt Show 2017. I hope to work with many of you on the Show Committee in the coming months, as we move past the planning stage. There will be lots to do and many opportunities to use your creativity. I look forward to working with you!

In the meantime, keep on quilting!

Sandy

Quilter's Department of WAC (Women's Athletic Club of Glendale)

What do you do to reach out to a friend who falls ill? Well, as quilters, you rally together and make a personalized quilt! This illustrates one of the spontaneous activities that happened at Monday Sew this month in the WAC clubhouse. Members gathered Western equestrian fabric and settled on a pattern the first day. Day two consisted of at least twelve contributing quilters cutting and piecing the quilt front. On the third Monday, the back was completed revealing a pleasing pattern featuring fabric images of bandanas, cowgirl boots, horses, and twirling ropes. It is now being quilted. WAC members Bev Van Cleave, Leah Bessy, Dona Garding, and An Burgess are to be commended for jump starting this project and bringing it to completion. Since this loving gift is a surprise, the recipient's name remains a secret!

GQG Members Cindy Abrams, Kathi Wilson and Kathy Fogel gave a presentation on "Why Quilts Matter" at the WAC assembly on May 17, 2016. They narrated a power point show describing the various quilts made for Loving Hands, Linus, Quilts for Veterans and Quilts of Valor and how much those quilts mean to the people receiving them.

The Quilters put on a fabulous lunch, decorating the clubhouse with quilts and fabrics. The WAC clubhouse has proven to be a facility conducive to Loving Hands workshops and GQG Saturday Workshops and would love to welcome any other guild members who would like to join.

Monday Sew continues. Please join us each Monday in the Clubhouse from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM except the third Monday when the time changes to 9:00 AM to 2:00 PM. This is to allow for set up of the monthly WAC meeting.

Happy Quilting! Submitted by Cindy Abrams

Quirky Quilts with Sylvia Q. Davis

The evening with Sylvia was so entertaining, and as she promised, her selection of quilts was quirky. Her E quilt for Easter and the H quilt for Halloween were what one might expect. However, K was a Christmas quilt, and Marvelous M was a sunglasses-wearing cow whose body was Hawaiian fabric; O was a large quilt with a giant letter O; and Z was a zebra with a tail announcing Z-end of Sylvia's presentation.

She had a couple Q quilts—one depicted the letter Q made of safety pins. When asked what the Q stood for in her name, she explained that when a child, she noticed she was the only one in her family with no middle name. She liked the name Marie, so she called herself Sylvia Marie. Much later at work, somebody else took SM Davis as an e-mail name and since she enjoyed quilting so much at that time it led to her deciding to become SQ Davis!

Most of Sylvia's quilts were large, but R was a tiny square she made in a workshop that she said would never grow beyond what we saw. A few of the quilts were made by Sylvia's students or friends, and they, too, displayed chosen letters of the alphabet.

Her quilt holders were gifted with "Vanna" gifts—necklaces on a cord holding a new spool of white thread. She also gave the guild a gift which will be included in June's raffle items. We will wait and see what fun gifts she gave one lucky member!

And the answer to her teaser alert: "S" is for "Sex". This translated to Shopping Expedition! We thank Sylvia for an evening where we laughed, were impressed with her quilts, found ideas for our own quirky and/or alphabet quilts, and enjoyed her presentation as an engaging speaker.

Loving Hands Activities

With a new Guild year beginning, it's time to talk once again about the sizes of the Loving Hands quilts. Our basic little quilt is 35½" x 40". There are many reasons why this size was chosen years ago; I won't elaborate now, but I can say that it is a size welcomed by all the hospitals that we serve. At County/USC, they are not only given to new moms for their infants but also to elderly patients in wheelchairs.

When we decided to support the Alzheimer's Disease Cooperative Study in 2012, they specifically asked for quilts that were 40" x 50". Of course, if a certain pattern yields a slightly larger quilt, they are happy to receive it; if it turns out significantly larger, we set it aside for the Veteran's Home of California in West Los Angeles.

As Loving Hands is always delighted to receive finished quilts of any size, we do have in our inventory may whose sizes fall in between those mentioned above. We can always find them deserving homes, but we prefer to focus our own efforts on the two sizes for which we have on-going demand.

We are extremely fortunate to have several longarm quilters who donate considerable time, effort, and materials to help us. They all appreciate working on the smaller quilts because they can be loaded most efficiently on their machines. When a top is larger or a different shape, setting it up can become time consuming, and if the top is so large that the back has to be pieced, that means extra labor for the quilter. So as much as we appreciate donations of any type, we especially appreciate tops that meet our size specifications!

We also gave away 10 quilts to chemo patients at the Disney Family Cancer Center.

In May, we took in 17 quilts and 45 tops thanks to the efforts of our hard working Guild members: Peggy Barber, Leah Bessey, Hester Bell, Joliene Blanchard, Mary Bolas, Bev Underwood, Linda White and Nan Maples, Joanne Brown and Nancy Condit, Annie Laurie Babson, Margaret McNeal, Nancy Wagner, Norris Freed, Ann Bagne, Donna Ryan, Cathy Euler, and Nancy Turney.

New Member Luncheon

On Saturday May 21, 2016, the Membership Chairs welcomed seven new members to the Glendale Quilt Guild by hosting a luncheon at the Women's Athletic Club (WAC) clubhouse. Some Board members and other members also joined in the festivities. The event was almost impacted by a power outage in Glendale, but much to the relief of the Membership Chairs, Tim Spinn and Leanne Compean, the power was restored in time to prepare the main course, a variety of quiches. We thank the members for their contributions to the luncheon.

Also a special thanks to the WAC Quilter's for sharing their decorations from a WAC luncheon held earlier in the week, especially Kathi Wilson and new member Cindy Abrams. The chicken theme was brilliantly executed. The WAC clubhouse was splendidly decked out in quilts on every wall thanks to Craig Coleman, who provided the quilt hangers. A short presentation, "Why Quilts Matter", was the highlight of the day. After lunch and dessert, we spent a fun time getting to know the new members and their experiences in quilting.

Thank you to all who assisted to make this a special event!

Leanne Compean and Tim Spinn, Membership Chairs

Saturday Open Sew Workshop

We had an Open Sew Workshop on Saturday, May 14th. Those in attendance were: Cindy Abrams, Denise Koch, Mernie Meier, Donna Hovartos, Maria Rodriguez, Colleen Shier, Beverly Underwood and Jackie Carlos.

Here are some comments by those at the gathering: One of the benefits of Saturday's Open Sew was that it was so much fun sharing ideas and making friends. You might get more done at home but you would not enjoy yourself as much.

There happened to be a yard sale across the street so we incorporated a walk for some exercise and ventured over there. Some cotton fabric was actually purchased at the yard sale by one of the ladies.

Beverly finished a UFO top that she started in 2004 and worked on a few other tops she hadn't had time to work on and received help with a few decisions on borders and backings from the ladies.

We ate lunch outside as it was such a lovely day. In all, we had a great day of fun and a lot of laughter. Please be sure to come join us at the next Workshop.

Making Pet Beds

Do you have those fabric scraps that fill your trash or that you might one day make into miniature quilts (yeah...right)? Or the batting edges that you cut from your quilts that one day you will turn into Frankenbatting? Here is a new purpose for them - stuffing for dog/cat beds.

Donna Ryan has a fast method of making the beds. Take half a yard of fabric (fleece is nice), fold it in half, add batting and sew along the 2 sides from the fold to the open edge. Sew an oval shape in the center for the animal to curl up in, leaving about 4 inches open on the side facing the open edge. Stuff the center and then sew it shut. Stuff the rest of the 'pillow' and then sew the open seam shut. It is best to double sew all seams so the bed won't leak stuffing in the future.

Another option is not to add the batting, but just sew the 'pillow' as described above and fill it with the fabric/batting scraps. You can also make larger or smaller beds depending on the amount of material you have. Again a reminder: to double sew all seams.

Turn in any beds you make to Donna or Kathi Wilson at any General Meeting and they will pass them on to places that will use them.
