Meet our January Speaker: Josephine de la Cruz Keasler

Certified Quiltworx Instructor, Judy Niemeyer Quilting Instructor, from Riverton, Utah

"One yard of fabric, like one cookie, is never enough!"

Josephine has been an avid quilter for many years. Three friends gave her a quilt as a gift which introduced her to our wonderful world of quilting. After that she was hooked! She says her "first few quilts were examples of everything not to do when making a quilt."

She loves teaching and sharing her quilts with others, she also continues to take classes from other instructors, thus staying current in the "how to" quilting department. In 2015, she completed the certification process to become a Quiltworx Certified Instructor.

Born and raised in California, Josephine and her husband decided to move to Riverton, Utah. In Utah, she has served as a board member of the state guild, newsletter editor, and coordinator of vendors and quilt show chair for the annual quilt show for many years. In 2016, she was voted as 2017 President-Elect of the State Guild, a step-up program to President. Having made more than 110 quilts in just the past 10 years, she was honored to be chosen as Artist in Residence for Empty Spools Seminars held at Asilomar in 2015, where she exhibited 40 quilts. She will be teaching at Empty Spools in 2017, and is very excited about that. Josephine was recommended to us by Guild member, Susan Edwards.

The President's Block

The Joy of Being Involved

Our last meeting of the year was amazing, with the Nestle Choir, Cindy's clever narration of the Panelmania slide show, Panelmania grand prize drawings, and of course the grand finale of the narration and singing provided by Kathi Wilson's granddaughter, Kaiya. This was followed by a huge turnout on Friday at the thank you party for all Loving Hands volunteers, graciously hosted by Susan Edwards.

With the excitement of the holidays all around, as well as the anticipation of the bus trip to Road to CA, new programs for 2017, and innovative developments in Loving Hands, there are a lot of opportunities for members to be involved.

There is also Monday Sew at WAC, available for any guild member to join, workshops to sign up for, and Loving Hands work days to attend. Let's not forget future open board positions where members can be a part of the decision making process that helps improve our guild and keep it running.

One of the many benefits to joining in on any guild sponsored activity is being around active, stimulating members, who by their energetic examples motivate others to accomplish more. For example: Going to Monday Sew, some who attend say they could probably get just as much sewing done at home, but what they wouldn't get is the comradery, encouragement and laughter. The same goes for Loving Hand days and meetings. Working alongside others, whether pinning a quilt, coming up with ideas for programs, cutting fabric and sewing for LH's quilts, hashing over ideas for the show, the fun is in getting to know other guild members, enjoying their strengths, supporting their ideas, reaching out and being involved with others who are excited to be a part of an incredible group of quilters.

Anyone in the guild is welcomed and encouraged to join the Board and any guild activity. If you hesitate getting involved, remember that our guild needs everyone, especially you, whatever your special skill is (even if you are not quite sure where your talents lie), to keep our guild healthy and vibrant. Please contact Donna Ryan and let her know your interest.

To a wonderful 2017!

Happy Quilting,
Colleen Shier

Quilters Division of Women's Athletic Club (WAC)

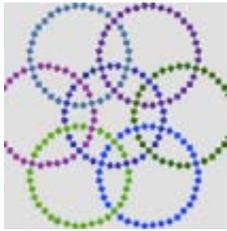

The Glendale Salvation Army received some help from the WAC Quilters this December. During the November luncheon a speaker from the Salvation Army described their 'Adopt a Family Program', which pairs holiday helping donors and the area's most financially needy families.

After hearing that there is difficulty in fulfilling the wishes of larger families, we quilters were ignited by Bev VanCleve's idea to organize and, as a group, volunteer. We only had two weeks so we divided up the list, focused on individual family members, then set out shopping. We were able provide everything and more on the holiday wish list for "our" family of seven: clothing, shoes, socks, toys, sports equipment, a set of eight table settings, household items, stocking stuffers and gift cards for food and gas and other surprises.

Being quilters, the biggest surprise was a stunningly colorful large quilt generously donated by Kathi Wilson. Boxes and boxes and boxes of gifts were delivered to the Salvation Army headquarters on December 11 where they were enthusiastically received in plenty of time to make their way into the hands of our family for the holiday.

The saying goes, "You get what you give" and the WAC Quilters surely got back a wonderful sense of altruism, unity and love as a result of their involvement with this endeavor.

For those who belong to WAC, Monday Sew is every Monday from 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM. Everyone is welcome!

Don't forget to mark your calendars for the next Show Committee Meeting! Thursday, January 26th 6:30 PM at the WAC Building. See you there!

9 to 9 Quiltathon at WAC

Everyone is welcome to be a part of this unique event on Tuesday, January 31, 2017, when we will be working 12 hours(!) from 9AM to 9PM sewing pre-cut 3-1/2" strips into quilts for kids attending the YMCA's Camp Whittle in Big Bear this summer. Gold Star Kids who attend this camp have a parent in the military who sacrificed their life for our country. Other military kids have a parent who has served or is currently serving.

Bring your sewing machine, thread, sewing supplies and enthusiasm to help Loving Hands begin tackling its goal to deliver 25 quilts. Come for an hour, for part of the day or all 12 Quiltathon hours. We need ironing volunteers, too. We will provide a light lunch and dinner, coffee, tea, and water. Bring a potluck treat for your fellow quilters if you like, but it is not required. Join us!

~ Membership ~

We currently have 142 members and six Affiliate members. Fifty members attended the December meeting.

Membership rosters and membership cards were distributed and the remaining rosters and membership cards will be mailed. Thank you all for renewing/joining.

We look forward to seeing you at a meeting soon!

Check Deposit Reminder

Anyone who has an outstanding (not deposited) check from the Glendale Quilt Guild, should deposit it as soon as possible.

Loving Hands Activities

At the December guild meeting, a total of 36 quilt tops were turned in, created by Cathy McNassor, Margaret McNeil (21 of them!) and Maria Paolone. And 27 finished quilts were turned in, completed by Ann Bagne, Leah Bessey, Sandy Bradfield, Joanne Brown, Kathy Fogel, Mary Ann Kroening, Robin McKnight Maria Paolone (8!), Donna Ryan and Colleen Shier. Several of these were part of the Panelmania project.

In the past month, Loving Hands received more donated flannel from Maria Rodriguez. And yet again we have received a sizable fabric donation from a quilt store. The ladies at Candy's Quiltworks donated one and a half big, blue Ikea bags worth of fabric (a standard of measurement in the Loving Hands world).

And just a reminder that Loving Hands now meets the third Friday of the month. So in January, the regular work session will be on Friday, January 20th at the WAC. On that day we'll be cutting strips for the jellyroll quilts we'll be making at the Loving Hands marathon event on Tuesday, January 31st (9AM – 9PM, also at the WAC). The quilts we'll be working on that day are for a camp for children of the military. We hope to see you both on the 20th and the 31st!

Take the Verdugo Road exit from the Glendale (2) Fwy heading north, get into the right lane on the off ramp, turn left at the signal, and then immediately turn right into the park/ride area underneath the bridges.

Sparkle Balls Quilt Block Exchange

Almost 35 people participated in this year's block exchange, which is one of the largest turn outs so far. Considering that everyone who took part had to complete 20 blocks – one to keep and 19 to give away. That means close to 700 blocks were made by guild members!

Everyone went home with 19 new blocks at the end of the evening. Come 2017, we should see plenty of Sparkle Ball quilts in the show and tell.

Craig Coleman and Kathi Coleman Wilson are sorting blocks and packaging them anew for the block exchange. A sample Sparkle Ball Quilt hangs in the background.
