

GENERAL MEETING

WEDNESDAY, January 13, 2010 6:30 PM

“The Ethnic Fabric Quandry”

“Working with Exotic Fabrics”

Have you been fortunate enough to trek through Africa, the exotic East, Australia or New Zealand and come home with fabrics with indigenous designs? These fabrics “often have large prints, motifs or scenes that make them beautiful, attractive and difficult to actually use in a quilt.” You may find yourself just holding them in your “stash” for years because you are not sure how to use them to their best advantage.

This month the Glendale Quilt Guild is pleased to welcome Sylvia Q. Davis as our guest speaker. Sylvia is a quilt artist, teacher and designer. She is currently developing a line of her own fabric designs. Sylvia has been sewing, knitting and crocheting since she was six years old. She discovered quilting in 1993 and, “all the other crafts went to the back of the closet.” She has an impressive body of work. Her quilts have been featured at the Pacific International Quilt Festival, Road to California, The African American History Museum, and the Riverside Museum. The topic of her lecture will be “The Ethnic Fabric Quandry.”

Sylvia is going to come to our rescue. She will discuss how to use these special fabrics and how to find a balance of color, scale and pattern. She “will help you decide between “focus” and “flavor” and will provide us with a list of do’s and don’ts when working with these exciting fabrics. Moreover, the basic principles in her lecture can be transferred to any quilt project. Sylvia will display some of her beautiful quilts featuring these fabulous fabrics.

Mark your calendar and put a note on the fridge. You don’t want to miss Sylvia and her beautiful quilts. She will strip away that fear of bringing home exotic fabrics.

The President's Block

Happy New Year 2010!

We're going "West" in 2011 and need your ideas for theme, opportunity quilt, etc! So East (the Asian Odyssey) will meet West in 2011! So partners, 2011 has a lot in store for us all, it will and shall be a Bonanza of Quilts and "rip-roaring" FUN!

Dear Friends!

Once the holiday season is past, we can hardly wait to start new quilts. After weeks of doing nice things for others, we're ready to indulge ourselves by choosing a terrific project, checking out our stash, and then head out to our nearest quilt shop affiliate for fabric!!

Gosh, we can count our blessings, we had a terrific year, so many fun programs, the excitement of the Asian Odyssey and Barb Gibson's finale Christmas program, the "Chanteurs". The Las Pulgas group provided the perfect ambience for our Christmas Potluck Feast! It's a fact that quilters are great cooks! Thanks to all for a super evening of entertainment and great food.

I have been so lucky to have had the opportunity of working with such an excellent board this past year, and I'm confident it will be just as exciting in 2010. As you know, we needed to fill the shoes of the 2011 Quilt Show Chairperson. After enjoying my two years of presidency, completing in June, it was not too difficult to agree to take on this challenge for 2011. I announced this after support of many and above all the best of the best, Sharon Bishop, who will be at my side! Who could ask for any better!

Happy Quilting and again, a great New Year!

Love ya!
Heidi

Do you know how to recognize a quilter?

- ~ Traces quilt patterns off anything: floors, pictures, walls, books, carvings or newspapers. This is considered "normal".
- ~ Buys lots of magazines because one of the pictures inspires a new project.
- ~ Could quilt all day and all night and be perfectly happy.

2010 Show Committee News

GQG Quilter's Boutique: Calling all quilters and crafters here is your opportunity to sell some of your handiwork, blocks, antique blocks and quilts, fabrics, wearable art, quilting tools, etc. You may sell if you agree to give at least 15% of your sales to the guild. It is your choice how much you give to the guild; some members give 15-100%. We have some very generous members! Contact Frances Brannon for other details at: fbrannon@charter.net

Quilt Entry Deadline: January 15, 2010 - contact Nan Maples for details at: nan.maples@us.nestle.com

Opportunity Quilts: After selling tickets for opportunity quilts for fifteen years, I have found non-quilters are impressed the most. They just don't know how we do it and are amazed at the talent, skill and beauty of quilts. They don't see them much in their worlds. Do you have a place you could take the quilt to sell tickets? Please contact Susan Edwards at: edwards4916@hotmail.com The Imperial Fan and Flight of the Butterfly are waiting to meet the public. They travel to Road to California January 15, so stop by and say HI! Refer to last month's newsletter for sales incentives.

Workshops: You can register on-line. The Quilt Show Chair and the committee request that you register for classes before February 19. The guild will need to cancel classes that have not met the minimum number of students to break even. But we will accept registration in classes (where minimums have been met) and lectures all during the show, if space is available. Some classes are closed now!

Lectures on Thursday, Friday

Saturday Night Sampler 6:30pm, only $15.00

Sunday Quilter's Award Celebration and Auction, only $25.00 (If you entered a quilt, you could be a winner, come and accept your award in person!)

Hotel and Hotel Roomates: Rooms are $100 (add $10 for more than 2 in a room), and $145 for a suite. See Loretta Bradley if you need a roommate. Use the promotion code: GQG and call 1-800-228-9290. Let me know if there are any problems.

Children's Activities: There will be a drawing for the completed quilt (made from blocks done by student attendees last year). Quilt Scavenger Hunt will be featured again this year along with children's workshops. There will be kits on Saturday and Sunday for kids to make quilt blocks that will be made into a finished quilt. Then the kids who made those blocks will be entered in a drawing to win the quilt at next year's show.

Special Drawing for a Spa Package:

Take a class, Reserve a hotel room and Enter a quilt.

If you do all three of these things, your name will be entered into a drawing for a spa package. This information will be gathered from workshop registration, hotel and quilt acquisition.

Heidi's party Friday (after lectures are over) at the hotel for hotel guests:

If you were there last year, you'll remember one fun evening. Expect to have even more fun this year.

2010 Instructor Update

Roberta Horton

LIVE AT THE
GLENDALE QUILT
SHOW

MEET ROBERTA HORTON

Roberta attended her first quilting event, a lecture, in 1970 and became hooked at that time. By 1973 she was teaching in the first state accredited quilting program in the state of California. Roberta studied antique scrap quilts for fabric usage and Amish quilts for color. Her horizons widened as she discovered fabrics from Africa, Japan and Australia. Studying African-American quilts taught her how to build a quilt in a new way.

In 1994 she was recognized as one of the 88 most influential quiltmakers in the world and in 2000 received the Silver Star Award by the International Quilt Association in Houston.

Roberta will be teaching 3 classes at our 2010 show. Your choices will be the Great American Scrap Quilt, Japanese Patchwork and African-American Quilts. Choose one, two or all three!

Loving Hands will meet on Friday, January 8th from 10 AM until done.

1038 E. Elmwood, Burbank. Stay as long as you like. We will provide lunch.

Donations of 100% cotton & batting are always welcome & we never have enough bright colors or kids fabrics. Thanks for your support.

A huge Thank You to everyone who contributed quilts last year.

Let's make 2010 even better!

Sunshine and Shadows

Get Well wishes are being sent to Paula Thomas, who is recovering from a car accident. Also to Evette Gallo, who is recovering from surgery.

Remove your name from the overdue book list which will be published in the February newsletter!! Thank you!

Lines from the Library - The library will be open in January. This is your golden opportunity to return those overdue books, for its AMNESTY this month only. It's important to return your books - someone else may be waiting for them. If you can't make it; arrange someone else to bring them for you.

MEETING REPORTS

Glendale Quilt Guild Executive Board Meeting Heidi St. Royal's Residence December 7, 2009

Present: Heidi St. Royal, Sharon Bishop, Corinne Gurney, Frances Brannon, Barbara Gibson, Lettie Williams, Crystal Dudley, Harriet Sartinsky, Dovie Kapoh, Margie Emmons, Sandy Bradfield, Caren Ryan, Alice Smith, Doralee Dohnel, Pat Rollie, Judy Sellers, Nan Maples, Brandi Nalley, Susan Edwards

The meeting was called to order at 7:25 pm. The treasurer's report was distributed, reviewed and approved. The minutes were approved as published in the Newsletter. Then, Sandy Bradfield reminded everyone because of the holidays there is a tight deadline for Newsletter articles submissions.

Frances Brannon announced 1) total membership is 208, 2) membership bookmarks are now available, 3) all rosters have been mailed at a cost of 61cents postage, plus 10 cents per envelope, plus the label, and 4) see Frances for free e-patterns.

Corinne Gurney just found out that Paula Thomas had a car accident right after the June meeting which is why we have missed her at the meetings.

Caren Ryan displayed the "Imperial Fan" quilt which will be completed this Thursday and the "Flight of the Butterfly" which is almost finished. Everyone is encouraged to promote the 2010 Show at every opportunity.

The librarians announced that January is amnesty month for return of all library books. It is probably time to thin out the books no one has checked out in years. Several board members will help the librarians with this task. Then, these books will be for sale to the members.

Vice-president, Sharon Bishop, will arrange a thank you candy for the library guys who help us with the room set-up for each meeting and carry the books to and from storage for us. Sharon knows of 2 featherweight machines for sale.

Regarding philanthropy, last years fabric contribution and presentation to the Young Piecemaker's Guild was very successful. A reminder about entering quilts in our show was sent to them. For this years philanthropy one suggestion is to donate more tables to the Glendale library.

Brandi Nalley, publicity, stated that Facebook is going very well.

Barbara Gibson is working on next years December program. There is concern that the Arcadia High School may disband the Chanteurs Choral Group when the music director retires at the end of this year. It was suggested that to feed the choral group at the end of the evening, that a sheet cake and take home boxes for desserts be provided.

Block-of-the-month will restart in January because every one is too busy in December to make blocks.

The need for letterhead stationery was discussed. It was decided to share what we have instead of purchasing more at this time.

Harriet Sartinsky stated that on-line registration for the 2010 Show is going well.

Nan Maples distributed the second set of by-law revisions for our review. It was moved, seconded, and passed that the first set of by-law revisions be presented to the general membership for their approval. They will be posted on the web site. All proposed changes have been presented to and studied by past members who have been instrumental in developing the past by-laws, including Carol Andrews, our founder, Pat Grim and Mona Hobson. Betty Fisher has also been contacted.

Heidi adjourned the meeting at 8:30 pm after announcing that she with the help of Sharon Bishop will chair the 2011 Show. The theme will be western. However, she will not take office until June when her term as president of the guild is over.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Edwards
Recording Secretary

Happy New Year 2010!

MEETING REPORTS CONT'D.

Glendale Quilt Guild
General Meeting
Glendale Central Library
December 9, 2009

As members gathered for the annual holiday potluck admiring the table decorations and quilts decorating the room, Heidi welcomed everyone and thanked Las Pulgas for their spectacular decorations. Today is Caren Ryan's birthday, so we sang Happy Birthday to her. December birthday members led their tablemates to the potluck line first. Turkey, ham, salads, sides and desserts were especially delicious this year.

At 7:15 pm, Heidi opened the business meeting. The minutes were approved as printed in the Newsletter. The treasurer's report was deferred because she is out of town tonight. The report will be in the Newsletter. Barbara Gibson announced the upcoming programs: Sylvia Davis, ethnic quandary, in January; salute to denim with a fashion show in February; and in June a free workshop by Nan Maples. Barbara asked members to vote for either the traditional game night such as strip poker or bring back Anne Copeland. Members voted for Anne Copeland.

Esther Norbut asked members to update their e-mails for the e-mail tree notices.

Frances Brannon named those with perfect attendance in 2009. She also has free patterns for those who want them.

Door prizes were donated by Cathy McNassor and a community friend via Melinda Helscher. Fat quarter draw was won by Mary Ann Kroening. Block-of-the-month was won by Phyllis O'Connor, Cathy McNassor, and Corinne Gurney. Table center pieces were won by those who drew number 6 or number 3. There was a short show-and-tell followed by the gift exchange.

Wearing festive gold dresses or vests, the Arcadia High School Chanteurs filled the stage with holiday melodies. At the end of the program, they greeted us with well wishes. After much applause, Heidi thanked them for a delightful program. The meeting was adjourned at 8:45 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Edwards
Recording secretary
