GENERAL MEETING

WEDNESDAY, May 12, 2010 6:30 PM

Ann Turley

Forget the Broccoli!

This month the Glendale Quilt Guild is pleased to welcome award winning quilter, teacher and lecturer Ann Turley. Ann has been inspiring quilters for over ten years. She is an excellent speaker with a great sense of humor. She will be entertaining us with her newest lecture titled, "Why Am I Buying Broccoli When All I Want To Do Is Quilt?" She will also present a trunk show with some of her award winning quilts.

Like most of us, Ann has been sewing and crafting most of her life. She made her first quilt in 1991 and has been a leader in quilting circles ever since. Ann says her "work is created from a restless desire to express herself in fabric, texture and image. She is excited when faced with unusual scenarios and often uses them as the foundation for a project. She does her best work when she gives herself no boundaries or deadlines and only a loose idea of where she wants her work to lead. As she works with the fabric, she allows the project to evolve; frequently adding embellishments like paper, yarn, copper or steel mesh, paint and ink. Whatever it takes to help the viewer become part of her work and to understand what she is trying to say. The use of embellishments creates visual excitement and tension that keeps her quilts interesting."

In her humorous presentation, Ann will encourage us to open our "eyes to the quilting uses of many non-quilting items." Whether you're making a traditional quilt or an art piece, she is sure to inspire you to find just the right accents to add interest or flare.

Ann has won numerous awards for her machine and art quilts. She is a certified judge for quilts and wearables. Included in the list of events she has judged is the Hoffman Challenge.

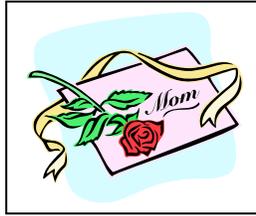

This is going to be a very enjoyable evening. You don't want to miss the fun; so mark your calendar, put a note on the birdcage and come help us give Ann a great big Glendale Quilt Guild "Broccoli-Free" welcome.

Fat Quarter Draw at the General Meeting!

The President's Block

Drum roll please - rrrrr! We have so many talents and honorees in this guild! Congratulations to Alice Turner and Pat Rollie our newly inducted Master Quilters. Their award winning quilts at the Asian Odyssey bedazzled us all. These talented and gracious women have earned the highest award in our guild. We are so proud of their achievement and may they continue to reach for the stars!

Then I had the honor of presenting a most prestigious award, "Honorary Life Membership", to two most deserving women of the guild. Honorees Alice Smith and Sharon Bishop were chosen and voted by their peers, the general membership, to receive this highly coveted honor for their extraordinary contributions to the guild. Their families were recognized for their continued love and support. Again; what talent and model quilters we all can aspire to become in our guild.

If that wasn't enough to begin our star studded evening, we had guest speaker Sylvia Pippin from Hawaii with an apropos program, "Designs from Paradise". She wowed us with a floral fantasy trunk show, and sell out workshop the next day!

Lately, when "counting my blessings" I have been reflecting upon some of the things I learned from my Mom over the years. She taught me the importance of striving for accuracy. I felt it stifled my creativity and didn't sew again till college, sewing clothes my way! She knew I corrected many mistakes! She encouraged nursing as a profession and said it would be a life long career, and guide me one day as a mother. She must have known I would become a mother of sons and would be mending many cuts! She taught me the importance of family and gave me the greatest gift of two sisters. She taught me to work hard and spend carefully, and how to make a great turkey dressing and German cookies. Then, she introduced a newly discovered hobby called quilting to my sister and I. I have been so lucky to have had the chance of sharing quilt making with my mother through the years. It has truly grown to be the center of our family with many special occasion gifts to remember that day. It is a bond, and memories to be cherished for all time. So come Mother's Day, Mom it's all about you and all the loving mothers, wishing you a special day!

See ya all soon,
and let's welcome Spring
with a bang!

Love, Heidi

Notes from the Judging Room

by Nan Maples

As you are planning your entries for 2011, it might be useful to know what judges look for. GQG entries are judged 50% on design, 50% on execution. So, the first thing judges look at is the overall impact of the quilt. Volunteers hold up each one for viewing as if it were hung in the show and then lay it back flat on the table. Judges are looking for a pleasing layout, a sense of balance (even if asymmetrical), effective use of "white" (empty) space, appropriate proportions, and the impact of fabric choices.

To learn more about design specifics and principles, take classes in design!

Fallen Warrior Project

After we have all had an opportunity to celebrate the 4th of July and are feeling patriotic and grateful, our members have set aside a day to sew blocks for the Fallen Warrior Project. Finished quilts go to the mothers of soldiers killed in our current wars.

If you wish to participate in the project, come to the Glendale Public Library on Saturday, July 17th. Bring 100% cotton fabric of your choice, a sewing machine and basic sewing supplies. The block is easy to sew. Pattern instructions are at the website below. So, come and spend the day or a few hours sewing quilt blocks for this worthy cause.

MEETING REPORTS

Glendale Quilt Guild
Executive Board Meeting
Susan Edward's Residence
April 08, 2010

Present: Heidi St.Royal, Margie Emmons, Frances Brannon, Nan Maples, Mary Ann Kroening, Corinne Gurney, Caren Ryan, Susan Edwards

Heidi opened the meeting at 6:40 pm. The March board minutes were approved as published in the Newsletter. Margie Emmons gave the treasurer's report which was approved as written. Compliments to Sandy Bradfield for her efforts for getting the show winners listed in the Newsletter despite the time crunch.

Mary Ann invited everyone to meet at Outback at 5 pm to have dinner with Sylvia Pippen prior to the meeting on Wednesday. Eighteen people have signed up for her workshop, but not all have paid yet. Nan's Big Bag class in June has 16 people signed up. Nan stated that she can take up to 36 students. Members may use their vouchers at Nan's class.

Plans for the new members tea was presented by Frances Brannon. Invitations to the 24 new and board members will be sent soon. Board members will bring the food and everyone is asked to wear their best apron.

Regarding the 2010 Show, the comments from members and other attendees were great. The decorations were appreciated by all. Corinne will send a thank you card to Gail Powell's family for donating her quilting supplies to the country store. There 2 new master quilters, Alice Turner and Pat Rollie. The 2 opportunity quilt winners, Diane Foss and Duskie Milberg, will be presented with their quilts at the next meeting. All the bills are not all in yet, so there is no treasurer's report. The wrap up meeting is April 27th.

Other business included: the nominating committee did a good job; Newsletter editor is still needed; the website will be updated with the show pictures; the library chairpersons purchased a book to honor Gail Powell; the show DVD to be sold in local quilt shops was agreed upon.

Future trips will include bus trip to Long Beach show and possibly a retreat at the castle in Temecula. With the western theme for next years show and the popularity of denim, we could wear red tee shirts, bandana, denim long sleeve shirt and tote.

Fat quarter draw for June will be batiks and for May – florals.

The last set of by-law changes was presented by Nan. Further discussions will be by email and at 5:30 pm before the next board meeting.

The meeting closed at 9 pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Susan Edwards

Only a Quilter ... by Tom and Madge Powis

We've all heard the classic line that only a quilter would take yards and yards of material, cut it into little pieces and then sew them back together again. While this statement is true and a little funny to think about, it doesn't even scratch the surface of the things that only a quilter would do.

Only a Quilter would spend more hours sewing several hundreds of buttons on a quilt to embellish it, but wouldn't take five minutes to replace a button on a pair of pants.

Only a Quilter would give the gift of a wedding quilt two months after the birth of the couple's second child.

Only a Quilter would put hundreds of dollars worth of fabric into her fabric stash because she might find a use for it sometime, but wouldn't replace a 50-cent needle on her sewing machine.

Only a Quilter would let three later-arriving patients go ahead of her at the doctor's office because she is on the verge of completing a block.

Only a Quilter would rush to finish a gift quilt. Not so it's done in time for the recipient's birthday, but so it's done in time for Show and Tell.

Only a Quilter would make a special quilt to give to her son, who would then have to attend quilt shows just to see it.

Only a Quilter would use freezer paper in the production of something to keep someone warm.

Only a Quilter has a welcome mat at the door to her home and an "Enter at Your Own Risk" sign on the door of her sewing room.

Only a Quilter invites everyone to see her sewing room, then says, "Don't look at the mess."

Only a Quilter says, "I really don't need another project," then offers to make a quilt for a friend.

Only a Quilter will buy more than she'll ever need of one fabric for her stash, but slightly less than is needed of another fabric to complete a project.

Only a Quilter would give a quilt book to the guild auction then bid on it to get it back.

Only a Quilter would drive 40 miles in a hurricane to attend a quilt show, but call out to have her dinner delivered because it is drizzling.

Only a Quilter's family would put up with, understand and love a quilter.

Glendale Quilt Guild General Meeting Glendale Central Library April 14, 2010

Wearing a master of ceremony white suit with red cummerbund, hat and tie, Heidi St. Royal opened this "star studded evening" at 6:30 pm. She welcomed Sylvia Pippen from Hawaii and also recognized Caren Cook Ryan for chairing the spectacular quilt show. Hearing no corrections, the March minutes were approved as printed in the Newsletter. Margie Emmons gave the treasurer's report which was submitted for audit.

Barbara Gibson announced the program for the May meeting: speaker Ann Turley. The Autry museum has an exhibit called "Homeland-How Women Made the West". The second Tuesday of each month is free admission.

Heidi presented the opportunity quilts to the winners. Duskie Milberg won the Imperial Fan quilt and Diane Foss of San Fernando won the Butterfly quilt. The 2 new master quilters, Alice Turner and Pat Rollie, were presented with an etched glass trophy and their names will be added to the guild's master quilter plaque. The winners of the viewer's choice awards were announced.

Sharon Bishop and Heidi donned cowboy hats for the kickoff of the 2011 show, "Quilts of the Wild West".

Tonight there are 130 members signed in, 7 guests and 2 new members. Frances announced that the New Member's Tea for all new members joining in the past year will be held on May 2nd at Susan Edward's house. Door prizes were donated by Marva Packey, Quilt N' Things, Sharon Camping and our Guild.

Please pick up your country store checks from Doralee, and take your left over items. The prepaid DVD's are also here.

The 3 winners of the 38 blocks-of-the-month are Phyllis O'Connor, Dolly Anderson, and Corinne Gurney. Next month's block will be a choice of 3 tropical flowers which can be appliquéd using any technique. The fat quarter draw was won by Frances Brannon.

Honorary Life Membership Awards were presented to Alice Smith and Sharon Bishop for their numerous contributions to the Guild over the years. Both members were surprised by appearances from their family members.

A Newsletter editor for next year is needed. Sandy Bradfield will help orient anyone who will accept this position.

After Show and Tell and the break, Barbara Gibson introduced our program speaker, Sylvia Pippen. With slides and quilt displays, Sylvia told of her quilt journey influenced by her botany background and her mother, Kitty. She often translates the flowers she has worked with in the garden into appliqué blooms and sashiko leaves.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:45 pm.
