Norah McMeeking: Bella Bella Mosaics

Coming from a family of printers, sign painters and seamstresses, Norah states that quilting is her destiny. She studied graphic arts at Rhode Island School of Design, and quilting proved to be a perfect marriage of graphics and sewing.

Norah has taught quilting at the adult education division of the community college in Santa Barbara since 1991. Because her students attended class year after year and wanting to offer different classes, she studied practically every quilting trend, fad, shortcut and technique.

She has exhibited in local and juried shows including Pacific International, Road to California, Quilts of UK, AQS in Paducah, etc. Her speaking engagements include numerous guilds in California, nearby states, as well as England where she lives several months out of the year. And she has taught at Road to California and Empty Spools Seminars, Asilomar.

With the help of C&T Publishing, Norah has published Bella Bella Quilts: Stunning Designs from Italian Mosaics. Join us for Norah's lecture titled Bella Bella Mosaics.

Before our meeting on Wednesday, please join us at Ocean View Bar & Grill, located at 3826 Ocean View Blvd. in Montrose at 5 PM for dinner. (RSVP to Susan Edwards so we have the correct number for reservations.) Everyone is welcome!

Hospitality: If your last name begins with R through Z please bring a treat to share at the General Meeting.

Glendale Quilt Guild

The President's Block

It was a super hot September! I hope you all stayed indoors to keep cool during that awful heat. One thing I will never get used to in SoCal is the HOT weather. I tend to dream of cool, clear water, palm trees swaying in the breeze and white sand . . . and temperatures in the low 80s! I can dream, can't I?

Now, we are facing October, with pumpkins, costumes for the kids (of all ages), Halloween parties and candy corn. Where I grew up in New Jersey, the air is cooling, while the leaves have changed colors and are beginning to fall from the trees. It's time to get ready to stock firewood, put up the storm windows and dig out the winter coats and boots to get ready for cold weather and snow. Just talking about it reminds me of the smells and sights of Fall. I'm keeping my fingers crossed that we will soon begin to experience Fall ourselves.

Those of you who attended Marcia Stein's workshop will agree that it was lots of fun and very informative. Many wonderful photographs were shared and by the end of the day, we were all well on our way to creating a quilt based upon our favorite photos. We'll see how many make it to "Show & Tell" this month.

October's speaker is Norah McMeeking, who will discuss "Bella Bella Mosaics". Her workshop, entitled "Stacked & Stacked Some More", will demonstrate the technique of precision piecing stacked layers, providing many variations to make stunning quilts. Reserve your spot quickly. This one will fill up!

During the last meeting, I discussed the possibility of a group of members getting together to rejuvenate our Library as a group effort.

If any of you are interested in participating in this project to restore our library access, please let me know. When shared among 3 or 4 people, each person will only have a couple meetings a year to staff the table. Selections may be made based upon the speaker's topic or a monthly theme. As in everything else, no job is too large when shared among friends. I'm sure we will all enjoy being able to take advantage of our extensive Library once again.

A huge "Thank You!" goes out to Sharon Camping and Linda Emory for hosting the WAC Luncheon in September. It was a huge success, thanks to all the members of the WACy Quilters who helped to set up, serve the meal and dessert and then clean up afterward. It's a wonderful group of quilters which includes many members of our Guild. These members joined WAC in order to benefit the Guild by allowing access to a wonderful meeting place, but have found a special camaraderie in this growing group. What a fun day! If you would care to join us, let Sharon or Linda know.

Don't forget - we need lots of member quilts entered for our next show. Use this month to begin finalizing your plans, to allow plenty of time to complete your quilts. Quilt Entry begins on December 1st, so I'm planning to get them done & out of the way before the Holidays begin. Remember, GQG members may enter up to 3 quilts (in 3 different categories) made within the past 2 years. For more information and forms, please go to the website -

<http://www.glendalequiltguild.org>

One last note: Fight SABLE Syndrome (Stash Accumulation Beyond Life Expectancy)! Make lots of quilts!

See you at the next meeting. Until then,

Happy Quilting!

Sandy

QUILT SHOW "Home Is Where the Quilt Is" - March 13-14, 2015

As announced at the last general membership meeting, there has been a change in the show plans. Because of a date conflict, there will not be a Thread Lecture from Bob at Superior Threads but they do plan on being with us for 2016. With a classroom now open on Saturday we had to act quick and are pleased to announce that Sharla Hicks will be back teaching her Zentangles, Anything Is Possible, One Stroke At A Time workshop. We took her meditative doodling class last April and just loved it. Not just fun to draw, the lines and doodles also generate creative quilting options as fillers and backgrounds. And the patterned drawing techniques are perfect for your non-quilting friends too. Zentangles are a relaxing way to unwind at the end of a busy day or an invigorating start to a creative day.

There is also another exciting change to the workshops. Laurel Anderson has just completed a new appliqué design which introduces the next generation of appliqué methods. In this new class, Geraniums, you will experience Terial Magic appliqué that mimics needle turn plus raw edge with fusible web. All the geranium petals are cut with the Silhouette CAMEO and shaped over marbles to give a wonderful 3D effect. If you have a Silhouette CAMEO or Brother Scan-N-Cut, troubleshooting tips and designing tricks are included in the class. If you would like to try before you buy this is the class for you.

As always, email us at glendalequiltshow@gmail.com with any questions or comments.

2015 Small Quilt Crayola Challenge

Each participant will draw two crayons from a bag, starting at the August General meeting. Those colors and their various shades will be the only colors allowed for your fabrics and embellishments. The theme is the maker's choice. The quilt must be 15" x 20" with either a vertical or horizontal orientation. The quilt must have a top, batting, and back (3 layers). The maker may use any quilt method. The actual crayons must be attached to the front of the quilt, either temporarily or permanently. Entry forms will be available on the GQG website. Acceptance begins December 1, 2014. Entry Deadline: February 11, 2015. Awards will be given for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place. All quilts will hang at the 2015 Glendale Quilt Guild Show.

From Esther Norbut:

I've been reading about Fidget Quilts which are small - maybe 15 inch quilts - for dementia patients. Also called dementia quilts. Various textures and trinkets are attached to the quilts that would keep a patient interested. They sound like fun. Here is a website that talks about them. There was also an article in a recent Quilter's Newsletter.

Quilt Show Workshop Spotlight

We are pleased to welcome Melissa Corry, a modern quilt pattern designer and teacher, at our 2015 Quilt Show. Melissa will teach 2 half-day workshops on Friday, March 13. Her patterns are new, adorable and modern.

Friday morning, Melissa will be teaching the Wonky Irish Chain. It is a modern twist on a classic Single Irish Chain. Varied sized print pieces link together to make up a Single Irish Chain that will keep your eyes moving. This pattern is perfect for cleaning out that scrap drawer. And with 4 size options, you are sure to find one that fits your needs. It goes together fast and is so much fun to piece. If you are looking for something fun and fast, this is the class for you.

Friday afternoon, the workshop will be In Your Neighborhood. This is a great modern design that really grabs the eye. The big blocks make a big statement and the floating layout allows for a lot of movement. And 3 size options allow you to make the quilt you want. If you like a bit of modern flair, then sign on up! We are going to have a great time.

2015 Glendale Quilt Guild Show Longarm Challenge

We are almost ready to release our Longarm Challenge for the 2015 Show! This Challenge is open to everyone, not just members, so let's all get the word out! In this Challenge, all participants will be working with the same small quilt top Provided by the Guild. Choose your own batting, back and thread.

The size of the quilt is 20 x 20. Quilting must be hand-guided long armed by one person; not computerized. Judging will be based on your quilting design, difficulty, and execution, as well as overall workmanship.

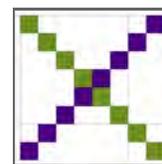

Awards will be presented for 1st, 2nd, 3rd places, plus two Honorable Mentions. The challenge will be limited to the first 20 entries accepted.

Cost to enter the Longarm Challenge is $10.00, which covers the cost of the top. Entry acceptance begins December 1, 2014; Deadline is January 12, 2015.

Entry forms will be available starting in September on the Guild website: <http://www.glendalequiltguild.org>. Select "Longarm Challenge" under the Quilt Show/Forms menu and follow directions for entry. Quilt Intake is March 11, 2015 from 5:00pm - 7:00pm at: The Women's Athletic Club of Glendale, 600 South Verdugo Road, Glendale, CA 91205. Contact us at glendalequiltshow@gmail.com to arrange to pick up the top or attend a GQG General Meeting starting in September, 2014.

Remember - the challenge will be in how you decide to quilt it. Have fun and get creative!

~ Membership ~

September was a great month. We had 82 members at our September guild meeting. We were delighted to welcome Diana Barnes, Joliene Blanchard, and Judy Hine as our newest members to the guild.

The Glendale Quilt Guild is currently 124 members strong. There are 64 members with unpaid status at this point. Please renew your membership so that you will continue receiving the Guild newsletter, get the printed Membership Directory, attend great lectures and classes, and partake in all aspects of the Glendale Quilt Guild - as well as meeting and making new friends. If your membership is not current please go to www.glendalequiltguild.org and you can either renew your membership online or take care of it at the October guild meeting.

The new Membership Directory should be available at the October general meeting.

Rubber Ducky Club October 2014

Rubber Duckie Club "Quilt of the Year"

Workshops are 10am – 4pm at GWAC. $10.00 each. Sign up with Workshop Chairs.

DATES:

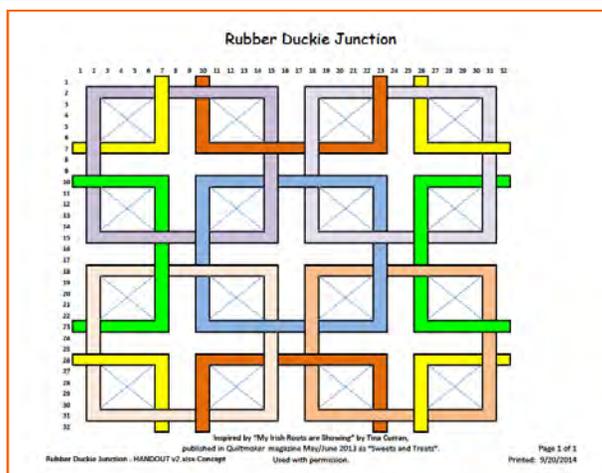

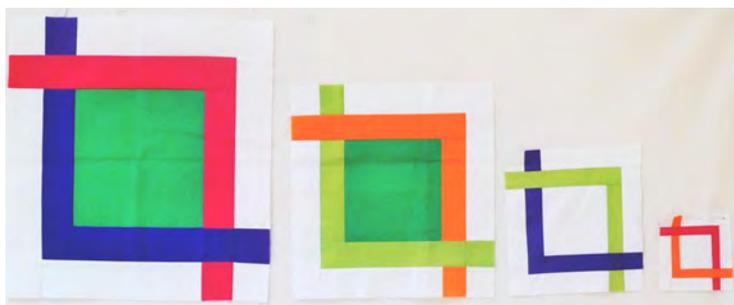

JULY 26, 2014; AUGUST 23, 2014; SEPTEMBER 27, 2014

OCTOBER 25, 2014; NOVEMBER 23, 2014; DECEMBER (date tbd)

Instructions have been posted on the Guild website for those who choose to work independently.

Below is a picture of the sample blocks in four sizes provided by Nan Maples. The finished blocks are laid out to make the design in the concept drawing to the right!

2015 Quilt Show Merchandise:

After the Show committee agreed on the style of bags/totes and water bottles, they were ordered and are now here for your purchase at a special preview price of $6 each. After the December meeting the price is $8 each or both for $15.

The bag/tote is different than years past, popular with today's youth, can be used as a light weight backpack, and has an outside pocket and netted area which holds the water bottle. Do not let the small size fool you. It is perfect for hand projects and for carrying special items tucked into a really big bag.

The 20 ounce PBA-free water bottle fits nicely in the netted pocket in the bag. Or carry it using the lid hook or its shapely curved body. The lip of the top accommodates ice cubes, which is a huge plus on these hot days when we need cool hydration. The plastic straw does need to be attached to the lid, but does not interfere in closing the bottle that is filled with ice cubes and water.

The red color stands out to help in advertising our guild and upcoming show. To those who have purchased theirs already, thank you for supporting the guild.

Get involved with YOUR 2016 Opportunity quilt!

Think spices, caravans, the Silk Road, India & Scheherazade. We're going for a quilt with a scrappy look and need your help. Please comb through your stash & donate BATIK fabrics with:
patterns of all types – stripes, dots, geometrics, and florals in highly saturated colors, inspired by spices, herbs, foods & even a few drinks.

- Reds – tomato, watermelon, rhubarb, burgundy, paprika & chili powder
- Oranges – carrot, pumpkin, peach, mango, apricot & tangerine
- Yellows – mustard, lemon, corn, buttermilk, honey, turmeric & saffron
- Greens – olive, avocado, spinach, lime, pistachio, sage & cilantro
- Purples – lavender, plum, eggplant & grape
- Browns – cinnamon, clove, nutmeg, caramel, cocoa, café au lait & latte
- Blues – turquoise, sky & navy (sorry, but with the exception of blueberries, blue corn and blue potatoes – which some people argue are all really purple – there really aren't any blue foods)

And, of course, any BATIKS that feature combinations of these colors!

Please bring your BATIKS to the October meeting – ideally a fat quarter or more, but we'll also happily accept large scraps – and you'll receive an extra raffle ticket for the 2016 opportunity quilt. Any unused donated fabric will go to Loving Hands. Thank you!

Sunshine and Shadows

- Glad to see Don Beld without the cast on his arm. He says it will probably never be 100% but the good news is he can still sew.
- It was good to see Sue Williams out and about after a lengthy recovery from another back surgery.
- Vi Bos had cataract surgery and is doing well.
- Betty Fisher has recovered from a broken leg that required surgery and some physical therapy.
- Congratulations to Alice Turner for winning seven ribbons at the L.A. County Fair!
- Rasa Read has had a quilt accepted at Pacific International Quilt Festival in Santa Clara.

Lastly, it is with sadness that I report that Susan Wiebush lost her husband and Michelle Shook's father-in-law passed away. Our sympathy goes out to Susan and Michelle and their families.

Please remember to let me know if you have any news, whether it be sunshine or shadow.

MONDAY SEW-IN (MSI)

Join us on Mondays at the Women's Athletic Club of Glendale, 600 S. Verdugo Avenue, Glendale, CA 91205 from 10:00am to 4:00pm.

Please note: on the 3rd Monday of the month the hours for Monday Sew will be 9:30am – 2:00pm so the ladies of the club can come in to decorate the tables for the monthly assembly luncheon the next day. We are not meeting on October 27th.

Exhibition of African Folk & Fiber Art at Road to California Quilting Show, January 22-25, 2015, Ontario CA

Winter will mark the largest exhibit of African Folklore Embroidery fiber and quilting art that California has ever seen. You are invited to submit your completed African Folklore Embroidery pieces for exhibit at Road to California. The exhibition curated by fiber artist, teacher and author, Leora Raikin, will feature the completed work comprising African folklore Embroidery pieces made into quilts, books, wall hangings, pillows, table runners, bags and wearable art. The exhibit with over $500 in cash prizes is in its fifth year.

The challenge is open to all; rules of the challenge are at www.afl embroidery.com

Deadline for submissions: December 15th 2014

Contact: Leora Raikin (818) 999-6094

Stacked and Stacked Some More

October Workshop,
October 11, 2014

Teacher: Norah McMeeking

Why stop at one stacked patch? Work with blocks that encourage more stacking. Stack coordinating prints, backgrounds, and corners to add pattern to pattern for lush designs.

Loving Hands Workshop

Another fun filled day is planned for Saturday,
November 8, 2014: 9:00am-4:00pm
Glendale Women's Athletic Club: Cost: $10.00
(a chance to use your voucher before it expires)

We have 4 different String Piecing Blocks to share...try one method or all of them, but the best part is you'll be making blocks for Loving Hands: Children's Quilts and the Alzheimer Project. We'll supply some fabric, drinks, snacks and prizes. You supply the energy & your lunch, (plus your machine and notions, of course!)

We have added 6 spaces for quilters who would like to help with non-sewing tasks (cutting, pressing, pinning tops/bats/back, etc.) If you would be interested just sign up for the workshop and note that you will be a non-sewing participant.

Sign up at the Workshop table at a Guild Meeting or at
B o o k w h e n :
