Dear Prospective Quilt Show Vendor:

Planning is underway for the Glendale Quilt Guild's 37th Quilt Show, "Ripple Effect" being held Friday and Saturday September 22 and 23, 2017 in the Conference Center building of the Pasadena Convention Center located on the East side of Green Street.

The Conference Center <http://pasadenacenter.visitpasadena.com/facility/conference-center/> will provide us with two full floors for the quilt show, classes, exhibits and a large vendor mall. The theme for our 2017 quilt show is "Ripple Effect". Show events will include a professionally judged quilt show, classes, lectures, a Featured Artist, special exhibits, Quilt Retreat Package plus drawings for sewing machines and raffle prizes.

The vendor mall is an essential part of our show and we strive to offer a variety of vendors for our attendees. Show hours are Friday and Saturday 10am - 6pm. Since exhibit space is limited, our goal is to bring in exciting vendors. The professional services and exhibit space at this venue provide the perfect opportunity for you to make your booth look new and enticing to shoppers.

Our popular "Shoppers Rewards" program will continue, providing an added sales incentive. We ask our show vendors to donate a door prize with a value of at least $25.00. Shoppers will receive a raffle ticket for each $25.00 in purchases (not including merchandise sold in the Guild Boutique). Several raffle tickets will be drawn each day of the show for baskets containing an assortment of door prizes donated by vendors.

We hope you will consider being a part of this extraordinary and fun-filled show. Complete the enclosed Exhibit Space Application and return either by email to GQGfundraising@gmail.com or by regular mail to Beth Hasenauer by March 1, 2017. Notification of selected vendors will take place on or before March 31, 2017.

We will offer a 5% discount on booth fees paid by June 1, 2017. Do not enclose payment at this time. Returning the Exhibit Space Application does not guarantee exhibit space. We look forward to receiving your application and thank you for considering participating in our 2017 quilt show.
