Laura Fraga The Phenomenon of the Dear Jane Quilt

Laura Fraga, our speaker at the GQG meeting on Wednesday, September 12th, has cherished memories of growing up watching her grandmother hand quilt traditional quilts with her church group, but it wasn't until 1990, after taking her first quilting class, that Laura found her own passion for quilting. After mastering the basics, Laura realized that she had two great passions – hand appliqué and making “Dear Jane” quilts.

The original “Dear Jane” quilt was a sampler comprised of an astounding 5,602 individual pieces that was completed during the Civil War in 1863, by Jane A. Stickle. Quilt historian Brenda Papadakis discovered the quilt at the Bennington Museum in Vermont and introduced it to the world in 1996.

Laura admits to being a Janiac (rhymes with maniac) since the year 2000. She has completed several Dear Jane quilts of different sizes and helped to launch numerous other quilters on their own Dear Jane journeys. Her quilts have won blue ribbons in national shows, making Laura a much sought-after presenter. In addition, Laura has appeared as a guest on The Quilt Show with Alex Anderson and Ricky Tims and taught her Dear Jane techniques at the Empty Spools Seminar at Asilomar. We are very pleased to welcome Laura as a speaker at GQG!

On Saturday, September 15th, guild members will have a chance to try their hand at creating their very Dear Jane blocks at a workshop led by Guild newsletter editor, Elke Miyahara. If you haven't already signed up online for this technique-rich workshop, please do so at the September 12th meeting.

The President's Block

I enjoyed Leah Zieber's presentation on antique children's quilts at the August meeting. She set the tone with a short video. In a soothing voice transported us back to a simpler time, before technology offered so many distractions. The trunk show was interesting, and I loved her passion for these quilts and the time period. She has even written a novel set in the time period of the antique quilts. As I interacted with Leah and listened to her presentation it became clear to me that she had found her purpose.

I have been contemplating purpose lately. My purpose as a quilter. Our greater purpose as a guild. This guild was created by founder Carol Andrews to carry on her love of quilting. Carol generously offered to us what she started with those first quilt shows so the Glendale Quilt Guild could continue the tradition; and pursue the purpose of contributing to the knowledge of and to promote the appreciation of fine quilts and quilt-making. (As stated in our by-laws.)

The guild achieves its purpose through all of our various activities; Programs, Workshops, Loving Hands, Show and Tell, Block of the Month, our various fundraising activities, and in other ways. A main focus of our purpose for over 30 years has been to carry on the tradition of having the best quilt show in our region. We have been renowned for our shows, and were even featured on Huell Howser's television show.

The quilt show in 2017 was a work of love by the show organizers, Sandy Bradfield, Tina Curran, and Beth Hasenauer and our Guild member/non-member volunteers. It was an artistic success and truly achieved the purpose of promoting the appreciation of fine quilts and quilt making. It was a feat of pure will. Many members who worked in all capacities before, during and after the show felt they had never worked so hard on previous shows. Our guild is not the size it once was, which means fewer hands to carry the load. I am in awe of what we accomplished.

At the November 30, 2017 meeting there was a thoughtful discussion about the future. The question was asked, "Do we as a Guild want to do a Show?" The answer by those present, although not unanimous, was "Yes, we want a Show". By the time this is published, the first Quilt Show meeting will have taken place. As we move into another fundraising cycle, I encourage all of you to support Rasa Read, the Quilt Show/Fundraising Chair. A guild is the sum total of the energy, creativity, warmth, and purpose of all its members. Together, we are a formidable force. I look forward to what happens next.

Finally, I want to share a poem that was printed in the Sister's Quilt Show magazine. Unfortunately the poem did not include the name of the author. (Please see bottom of page 4 for the poem.)

Isn't it amazing to "create with purpose"? This image has lingered with me all month long.

Enjoy your quilting days! Tim

UNDER THE BIG TOP

Help! Help! Help!

We are down to the wire finalizing details for our

"Under the Big Top" Opportunity Quilt and October 20th Quilters' Home, Studio & Garden Tour and Luncheon

Thanks so much to everyone who has worked so hard on this year's efforts. It takes the entire quilt to make our big events happen. Whether it's a show or another of our fabulous fundraising efforts...we hope everyone will do what they can to help. For this event we have said that each ticket you purchase to the event will be counted as 1 hour of service (2 tickets= 2 hours). We really need to sell 30 more tickets to make for a fully successful event. Can you help? You can buy tickets on line, at the September guild meeting or just contact Kathi Wilson at 818 422-8798 domehikr@aol.com and she'll walk you through it.

Buy a ticket for a young person just learning to sew, a friend who loves to tour homes and gardens, or for someone who may not have the resources. You are welcome to buy a ticket that we will pass on to an interested student.

Buy or Sell Opportunity Tickets for "Ms Big Top". This year much of our fundraising efforts have been focused on our Opp Quilt. We hope to make $6,000 and we are getting close. Thankfully, there is still time to help. Purchase tickets at the September and October Guild meetings or take tickets and a photo and sell them to friends and family. (Please remember we are each responsible for the sale of at least $10 worth of tickets).

Submit a quilt for exhibition at one of the homes on the tour...and maybe win a Viewers' Choice ribbon. Questions? Contact Kathy Folgel at kafogel@charter.net or 818 330-9372. We've added a ribbon category for chicken quilts so you are welcome to submit one of those as well. They will be exhibited at Hester's chicken coops. Contact Hester at hbell@rsabg.org or 626 497-6152.

Poem from Tim's President's Article:

Listen.

Your quilt has a voice; it carries a story for those meant to hear.

More than technical skill and time of organization that archeologists will admire, our quilts take us in fabric folds and stitches to destinations beyond imagination.

Whose quilt is this?

The soul whose shoulders wear its warmth,

The sewer who put pieces together to fulfill the need of creating with purpose?

Quilts can belong to both.

They can make a difference:

On a cold night,

On a lonely afternoon,

When someone needs a hand,

When we need to help another.

Quilts can have a say: I love you. You are not alone. I am your grandmother. All is not lost.

The sewing room closed and gone dark. These quilts will light our way for others to know who they missed: "I colored within the lines." "I ran with scissors." "I like intricate designs." "I like patterns that repeat themselves." "I made quilts with love and gave them away."

We give ourselves away, so others may know of our courage, kindness, and generosity.

Star Blocks for July

The final star is in this issue and tops are due in October.

LOVING HANDS: GQG Charity Quilting

July's 25 LHs participants were hardworking and generous. Jan Shimmin (3), Denise Koch (2), Karen Millman (3), Pat Goldtich (2), Louise Rupp (2), Joyce Li (2) and Leah Bessey (3) turned in complete quilts. Suzanne Marquez, a friend of Leah Bessey, donated a beautiful infant/toddler sized completed quilt. Thank you, Leah for telling Suzanne about LHs and delivering it. Bound quilts were completed by Mary Jamora (5), Denise Koch (3), and Donna Ryan (4). That totals 30 quilts. Amazing!

Finished flannel receiving blankets were turned in by Nancy Wagner (2), Peggy Shiffmann (4), Cindy Abrams (2), Joyce Li (2) and Jolien Blanchard (8-wow!). Marie Waterlond donated four amazing adult sized tumbler quilt tops made from donated fabric and she donated 30,000 (not a typo) 5" squares. If you have a favorite 5" square pattern and would like to make an adult sized quilt (40"x50" or larger) from some of those squares for LHs, please speak with one of the LHs Chairs and we'll make that happen.

Diane Sullivan (5) and Susan Edwards (3) donated beautifully quilted tops. Kate Ung is mastering stippling as evidenced by the 10 infant quilts that she quilted this month and she wants more! Craig Coleman was also on a tear completing 10 and promising 9+ more by our August LHs Workshop. He's generous and unstoppable!

The September's LHs workshop is on 09/21 at WAC from 10am-3:00pm. There will be all kinds of quilt making activities (by hand and by machine) available. Love to have you join us! Bring your machine and neutral thread if you would like to sew.

Lastly, our Third Annual Taco Day Sew-In will be held on Friday, October 5 from 4:00-9:00pm. This is the day when we all sew with precuts, eat tacos, laugh, eat more tacos and enjoy each other's talents and company. Last year we completed six large quilt tops in those five hours. BOOM! Sign up at the next General Meeting on September 12 or email An Burgess (cairo1999@aol.com) or Cindy Abrams (cindyabrams2010@aol.com) to let us know you are coming. Contribute an ingredient to our taco pot luck if you like, but it is not required.

Submitted by Susan Edwards, An Burgess and Cindy Abrams

~ Membership ~

Fifty-one members signed in at the August 2018 meeting.

Visiting were guests Helen Deamos, Janet Endreola, husbands: Steven Gibson (Barbara), Ed Gray (Ellen), and Nick Deamos (guest Helen). We were happy they all joined us for the evening.

A special welcome to Rebecca Fletcher, a new member. Rebecca, a Burbank resident, heard about us on a Google search and “finally got up my courage to join,” and aren’t we glad she did. She is a self-taught quilter who enjoys hand quilting, applique, and piecing as well as machine piecing. So seek Rebecca out at the next meeting and introduce yourself.

Winners in the evening’s drawings: blue tickets for attendance include Peggy Schiffman, Mary Ann Kroening, and Aviva Nizani. Kate Ung’s son Roger won the red ticket prize for wearing his badge. Congratulations to all.

So far we have received 91 membership renewals. We have 156 members in our data base and hope the remaining members renew by the end of August because the new roster will be based on membership at that time. Included in that 156 total are nine life members and eight past presidents.

Activity suggestions from a renewing member are open sews, camper quilt sew-a-thons, and Loving Hands after hours sews. If you too have ideas for guild activities, do share them with us; we appreciate your input.

Pat Golditch and Karen Millman, Membership Co-Chairs

NOT PRESENT: Nancy Turney- Workshop Co-Chairperson; Beth Hasenauer-Recording Secretary; Ellen Gray-Communications Secretary; Sharon Bishop-Parliamentarian; Jean Giacomelli and Alice Smith-Program Co-Chairpersons; An Burgess- Loving Hands Co-Chairperson

II. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter.

III. BOARD and COMMITTEE REPORTS

President/Spinn: He will send out notices via Mail Chimp and try to keep them as few as possible.

Vice President/Dudley: She attended the SCCGQ quarterly meeting in Santa Barbara on Saturday, July 14. August 15 is the deadline to include anything in their newsletter. Our October event is on their calendar. The secretary position is open on the SCCGQ Council. They hold quarterly phone meetings. October's meeting is in Long Beach and the topic is Philanthropy. Attendees can bring items of interest to the meeting. January's meeting is in Irvine, April's topic is Meet the Teachers and July's is Marketing for the Guild. Some tips to improve a guild's outreach are to host a community sew, have bookmarks available and assign a guild buddy to new members.

Treasurer/Jamora: The July Treasurer's report was presented. Expenses exceeded Income. The biggest expense was the yearly $3300 fee for the Guild's storage unit. A motion was made by Cindy Abrams to authorize the treasurer to get a deposit only ATM card for our checking account. It was seconded by Flo Cohen and approved by the Board. This will allow the treasurer an easier and faster way to deposit monies to the guild checking account via an ATM instead of having to go physically into the bank.

Communications Secretary/Spinn: Maria Rodriguez had surgery and is recovering. She welcomes cards and phone calls.

Parliamentarian/No report

Programs/ Cohen: September's speaker, Laura Fraga, will bring a door prize. The 2019 Program/Workshop Schedule was presented. After much discussion the January through June activities, which are already budgeted, were approved by the Board. July through December's schedule will be decided upon at a future meeting.

Workshops/Cohen: Only 3 people signed up for the August workshop. There should be good techniques to learn and more should sign up after the program next week.

Membership/Golditch-Millman: Eighty-three people renewed so far. We have 156 members in the database. Seventeen members are life or past presidents who do not need to pay dues, but must confirm that they wish to remain members. Three pay dues anyway. Only one Affiliate renewed. Membership will go personally to the others to encourage renewals. Discussed the need to exhibit guild quilts in different venues, such as the Glendale Library. Millman will contact different venues.

Newsletter/Miyahara: Newsletter deadline Tuesday 8/14. August newsletters were mailed in envelopes. Articles should be submitted by Board members ready to be inserted into the newsletter. The editor's responsibility is to proof and organize, not to write articles.

Fundraising 17-2018/Wilson: Ms. Big Top opportunity quilt has earned $5587.00 to date. Cruise night earned $252.00. The Big Bear Show is this weekend. 138 tickets sold for the luncheon and tour. The goal is 180. Next team meeting is Wednesday 8/15 at noon at WAC. More time was bought for set-up and take-down for the event at the Montrose Ladies Club.

Fundraising 18-2019/Read: Not sure of what type of event to put on. She wants a show (that is her forte) and if so may move it to Spring 2020. A meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, 8/29 at 6:30 pm at WAC. All are welcome.

Loving Hands/Abrams/Edwards: St. Joseph's and LA County Hospitals sent thank you notes for the quilts they received. A total of 23 people were taking and bringing things to LH at the last general meeting or attending the LH workshop. The August and October LH sewing events have extended hours from 10 am to 8:30 pm to allow more people to participate. September and November are the regular daytime hours.

Sunshine and Shadows/Cohen: Nancy Turney will have a double knee replacement on August 6th.

Audit committee: Need to get one together to cover the fiscal year: 7/72017 to 6/30/2018. Names were submitted to Spinn.

IV. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

501c3 no further news... but the check was cashed.

V. NEW BUSINESS

Standing Rules and Bylaws: Need to remove all references to Library, raise the dues and go over what "Not in good standing" really means. Currently 36 people did not pay $10 for the tickets for the Opportunity Quilt which is a membership requirement. The 36 include past presidents and life members. Go to the website under Membership to check the Bylaws and Standing Rules.

Christmas Block Exchange/Wilson: Snowball and candy blocks were presented. The candy block with a border was accepted.

Make a Deal Money Raiser/Cohen: A minimum of 8 people need to attend a Let's Make a Deal TV show taping in costume (would use quilt tops as toga-like costumes). For each attendee the show will give the guild $40. The agreed upon date is August 16, from 1 to 5:30 pm in Van Nuys. Contact Flo Cohen for more information.

VI. The meeting was adjourned at 8:35 pm.

Leah Zieber's Workshop

Participants came away with mini quilt tops, or I think a new word is in order: quiltlet. Leah encouraged us to start putting blocks/pieces together in a row and then adding them together in more rows/blocks and before you knew it, you had a top. Many of us left with more than one top sewn or organized to finish at home, which is a dream for any class.
