Meet: Peggy Martin
"Beyond Tradition"

Our presenter for our May 8th program will be Peggy Martin. Peggy began quilting in 1981, piecing and quilting everything by hand. A few years later, when quicker methods were being discovered, she became hooked on finding faster, easier ways to make quilts. Her presentation is entitled, "Beyond Tradition" and is designed to expand our creativity by using traditional quilts as a springboard for design inspiration. Ms. Martin will show us how one idea can lead to another, making one small change at a time to come up with totally new ideas and looks. Come marvel at her display of traditional quilts and the more contemporary ones that result from going one step beyond.

Jelly Roll Jive Workshop

Then join us again on Saturday, May 11th for Ms. Martin's workshop entitled, "Jelly Roll Jive." Learn how to make simple, fast strip-pieced blocks in a positive-negative design that can be set in a variety of ways to make very different looking quilts. This workshop is perfect for that jelly roll you bought ages ago and still haven't used or strips of scrap fabric cut from your own stash. The cost of the workshop is $40. Sign up online or contact Nancy Turney (818-352-6746) or Flo Cohen (818-244-5650) to reserve your space. See our website for a materials list at www.glendalequiltguild.org.

The President's Block

I recently spent time on the road traveling to Oregon for a family visit. The trip up the I-5 freeway is a familiar one for me, and rather nostalgic as I remember making the trip with my family as a teenager. How many times have I passed the familiar towns and sights on this trip? Too many to count. As I traveled south to north, I appreciated the yellow flowers growing in the San Joaquin Valley, the white flowers of the almond tree farms, and the green hills of the coastal range. Farther north I ran into rain and fog and so I missed seeing the peak of Mt. Shasta, and the scenery of the Siskiyou Summit.

Into Oregon there were many damaged oak trees from the most severe winter in about 10 years. Then I enjoyed the splendor of daffodils growing everywhere in the Portland area, plus the gorgeous blooming trees in pink and white.

Two weeks later, on my return from north to south I was struck by the many hues of green as I travelled the Willamette Valley, too many shades to count or to name. I thought to myself, "How many colors of green are there anyway?" If you look it up, Ireland alone claims 40 different greens. Upon my return through the Grapevine, I marveled at the green hillsides with shoulders of yellow and purple. Truly the state never looks better than after a rainy season!

Color, and family, dominated my trip north. And I think color is the reason I am drawn to quilting as an art form and a hobby. I even had the pleasure to help my sister start selecting fabric for a quilt. Even though quilting was not the main purpose of my visit, we always must find an hour or two to indulge our senses in a fabric store! While I missed the poppy bloom this year, I at least have Tina Curran's "Poppy" quilt pattern to help me savor one of my favorite seasons in Southern California.

A big thank you to Tina Curran, and all of the others, who donated items for the April raffle basket. It was quite a flurry of activity at that table. The house blocks with the theme "Summer House" were also amazing, and show off the artistry of the guild members

I particularly enjoyed Julia Fiske's program- Dating, Caring for, & Appraising Your Quilts. It was very informative and a fun topic, which seemed to generate a lot of interest of those in attendance. Thanks to Julia for the bed turning before the meeting to discuss some member's quilts. There were quite a few interested members gathered around the table.

If you haven't been to our website lately, you may have missed some changes. Hester Bell coordinated with the webmaster to add workshop photos to the website. Go to Programs & Workshops then click on Workshop Photos! They are organized by month. It is a great way to see what your fellow guild members are doing and see how much fun the workshops can be.

I am looking forward to the May meeting, with Peggy Martin's Program - Beyond Tradition.

Happy Quilting!

A note of thanks....

Dear Flo & Everyone at the Glendale Quilt Guild –

Just a quick note of thanks and gratitude for inviting us to your guild! You are a fantastic group of ladies and gents and so much fun to be around! Carl and I loved seeing your Opportunity Quilt, Chinese New Year Challenge and the show 'n tell quilts. We had a wonderful time meeting and visiting with each of you at your March meeting! I also loved getting to know some of you better in the Mini ModDog workshop and had a fantastic time stitching with you all – I hope you did too! Thank you so much for your good cheer, exceptional work and awesome hospitality! Wishing you all happy and bright quilting always, and thank you again for the lovely, fun filled few days!

With sincere thanks and love –

Linda & Carl, Colourwerx

Loving Hands: GQG's Charity Division

What a swirl of activity at the April meeting, including the action at the Loving Hands table. A total of 83 different items we turned in at the General Meeting from 30 different individuals: quilt tops, flannel blankets, VA Heart pillows, quilted quilts, and bound quilts. The sign-in sheets evidently prove that our LH Volunteers are generous beyond words! Thank you goes out to: Leah Bessie, Joyce Li, Elke Miyahara, Susan Edwards, Leah Bessey, Margot Ettl, Denise Koch, Crystal Dudley, Mary Furnish, Dottie Ahrens, Leanne Compean, Maggie Llamido, Alice Turner, Brandi Nalley, June McNamara, Margarit McNeal, Marie Watterlund, Ann Wilkins, Kimberly Smith, Violet Bos, Kathy Fogel, Lisa Burroughs, Donna Ryan, Hester Bell, Cathy Euler, Flo Cohen, Kate Ung, Joliene Blanchard, Hester Bell, and Elvie Quintos.

We want to remind you that Loving Hands workshops held each month are a wonderful way to get to meet other GQG members in a relaxing environment. There are so many ways to get involved from piecing, to ironing, to cutting fabric, quilting and sewing on labels. If you want to learn a skill or tackle a task that you are not very confident in, bring your machine and neutral thread. There is always a nurturing, helpful quilter there who will walk you through it and give you the confidence needed. We are all beginners at some point, and we all have something new that we can learn (or relearn if it has been a while). May's Loving Hands Workshop will take place on May 17 from 10:00 AM until 3:00 PM. If you have never attended one, come and have some fun.

Big thanks to March LH Workshop participants Tsuyu Emi, Hester Bell, An Burgess, Cathy Euler, Susan Washburn, Cindy Tanaka, Beth Hasenauer, Doralee Dohnel, Margot Ettl, Tina Curran, Leah Bessey, Kate Ung, Alice Hsu, Flo Cohen, Dona Garding, Rosalie Manuel, Susan Edwards, Kathi Wilson, Cindy Coleman, Craig, Louise Rupp and Cindy Abrams. We all wished Craig and Cindy Coleman a reluctant goodbye- and all the best as they move their new home in Seattle- while enjoying cake. Craig has been an unflinching volunteer and abundantly generous with his time and talents for many, many years. Bravo! They both will be missed.

Always remember that you are talented, you are appreciated, your work is valued, and you do make a difference.

Submitted by Susan Edwards, An Burgess and Cindy Abrams

Donna Ryan, Crystal Dudley, Cindy Abrams, Homa Asef and Denise Koch, who donated their Fortune Cookie Challenge quilts to LHs

APRIL RAFFLE WINNER

Congratulations Kathi Coleman Wilson!

Our 2019 House Block-Of-the-Month

At the April guild meeting, a total of 17 wonderful blocks were on display in our BOM gallery, all featuring the “Summer House” theme. Not surprisingly, we saw lots of bright colors. We had flowers and trees as well as surfboards among the decorations.

With help from young Roger, we randomly selected the next Block of the Month house theme – “Dog House.” This is the program’s third house theme, the first two being “Open House” and “Summer House.” Using the pattern and instructions available either as a hand-out at the meeting or on the GQG website, participants are asked to make a 12-1/2” x 12-1/2” house block using the “Dog House” theme – however they wish to interpret it. Additionally, the fabric choices and any embellishments (if added) should reflect the “Dog House” theme.

Members should bring their “Dog House” blocks to the May meeting. Upon arrival, please turn in your block to “The BOM Gallery,” where all the blocks will be on display. This way, everyone can see how this house theme was interpreted by all the participants. During the May meeting, the fourth house theme will be randomly selected and announced. At the end of the meeting, everyone will take home their own “Dog House” block. Members can still participate. Questions? Contact Tina Curran

III. BOARD and COMMITTEE REPORTS

Vice President/Dudley: 10 going to SCCQG Meet the Teachers Event in Carson on April 13. Ordered lunches. Need to develop the flow sheet we can use to grade the presentations. They expect 40-43 teachers to present to the group. Meet at park n ride at Harvey at 8 am. Next SCCQG meeting in July.

Treasurer/Jamora: Presented the March report and Auditor's report. There were 2 areas of concern in the auditors report. One was resolved. The other was a suggestion that more information be included on the income and expense forms that are used to submit these remittances so they can be better tracked and it is more transparent to determine their purpose. For expenses that were not specifically budgeted but approved, attach a copy of the minutes that documents when the expense was approved. Also need to write up a procedure that documents how expenses are divided between programs and workshops.

Communications Secretary/Gray: N Turney has had a recent death in the extended family.

Parliamentarian/Bishop: Tim and Sharon are working on revisions to the Standing Rules necessitated by the approved Dues increase. Candidate slate for 2019-2020 year: Tim Spinn-President, Crystal Dudley V-P, Mary Jamora-Treasurer, Beth Hasenauer Recording Secretary, Sharon Bishop-Communications Secretary, Elke Miyahara-Parliamentarian, Flo Cohen-Programs, Nancy Turney-Workshops, Rasa Read-Fundraising 2019-2020, Kate Ung, Holma Assef and Rebecca Fletcher-Membership, Ellen Gray-Newsletter, Cindy Abrams-Loving Hands. The slate will be voted on at the May Guild meeting and installed in June.

Programs/ Giacomelli-Smith /Cohen. Julia Fiske certified quilt appraiser is speaking this month about dating and caring for quilts. She does have a trunk show to supplement her presentation. Before the meeting starts she will do a quilt turning where she will point out unique characteristics of member quilts that would suggest a date or value. Participants should note this is not a formal appraisal. Saturday's workshop "Finally Finished" will be hosted by S.Edwards and A.Burgess. Have cute little sewing items as gifts that will be presented for items that are finished during the workshop. As attendees finish something they will put a raffle ticket in a bowl and these will be pulled for a prizes.

Membership/Golditch: 118 members The Guild does not have a provision for pro-rating dues for members who join in the months immediately preceding the new Guild year beginning in July. New member luncheon on Saturday 5/18. It will be a Potluck. New mbrs 14. Goodie bags will include fabric, a gift from candies and a $10 voucher for a workshop to be redeemed before the end of calendar year 2019. Will take specific signups for the potluck at the next Board meeting. Reviewed the Membership form to be used next year. Updated with the dues change and took out the option for paying for opportunity quilt tickets. Added a signature line acknowledging the membership requirements of the Guild. Brief discussion on how to enforce membership requirements. One suggestion with our upcoming show in 2020 is to make a requirement to enter a quilt in the show that one has to be a member in good standing with the Guild.

Newsletter/Miyahara: Ellen Gray is taking over the newsletter in June. Ellen will be able to print it at work.

Fundraising 2019/Read: (Spinn) Preparations for Bingo night are progressing Sponsorship letters are available. Encourage anyone and everyone to sponsor a game for $100, $200 or $300. This is a way that the Guild can make money. Next fundraising meeting Wednesday 4/18 at WAC.

Loving Hands/Abrams/Burgess/Edwards (Abrams): We have alot of participation in Loving Hands events and donations to Loving Hands. However we need more quilters/long armers to help us get the quilts finished. In June we will have a LH fabric sale or charity basket to specifically benefit LH purchase of batting etc.. Carol Andrews is requesting five GQG volunteers to help her with a philanthropic project at her retirement residence in Pasadena. These volunteers would be helping construct medium sized felt bags to hold toiletries. Contact Cindy if interested. Five of the Chinese challenge quilts were made and donated to LH.

IV. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Philanthropy is returning as a budgeted category for 2019-2020. We have alot more opportunities now to use funds in this manner. BOM is doing well. NTurney is still updating bookwhen and adding more detail about events. We have receipts available for bingo sponsorships as a 501c3. Aiming to present the updated Standing rules at May meetings. Dine-in Fundraiser starts 4/17/19 and runs for two weeks.

V. NEW BUSINESS

Got a nice thank you note. From Linda and Carl of Colourwerx, March program and workshop presenters/teachers.

M. Jamora, R. Read and T. Spinn are on the budget committee per bylaws. The new budget for the next Guild year beginning in July needs to be put together so it can be presented to the Board in June 2019 M. Jamora is assembling a 2 year expenditure history for chairpersons to use in planning for the new budget year. Think about the unexpected things we should be planning for.

VI. The meeting adjourned at 8:15 pm.
