Meet Trudy Cleveland: How (& Why) to Photograph Your Quilt

Trudy Cleveland, our very first speaker in 2019, has two great passions in life – quilting and photography. Trudy has been sewing since she was a child and has been quilting for nearly two decades. In 2010, she started a longarm quilting business. When customers came to pick up their beautiful quilts, she found she hated to part with them and so she started to take pictures of every quilt she had longarmed for a customer. She did this partly to have a memory of each quilt she helped to complete and partly to document her progress as a quilter. After a while she enrolled in a photography class at the local college, thinking that she'd take one class, learn some tricks of the trade, and be on her way. She had no idea that that she would become so enthralled with photography. Each class she completed taught her new skills that improved both her photography and her approach to quilting. Trudy's photographs were featured in the July/August 2018 issue of Fons and Porter: Love of Quilting magazine's feature article, "Quilts of Valor Ceremony."

Please join us on January 9th at our new meeting location, First United Methodist Church of Glendale, Carlson Fellowship Center, 130 N. Kenwood Street, Glendale 91202, to hear Trudy Cleveland share her tips and techniques for photographing your quilts.

No workshop in January, but we have other events:

- Join us for a bus trip to Road to California in Ontario on Saturday, January 26th from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm. (See page 4.)
- Still want to sew? Join us at WAC on Tuesday, January 29th for a Loving Hands Quiltathon where we will make up to 30 camp quilts. (See page 10.)

The President's Block

Happy New Year Everyone!

A New Year, with another new beginning. We will be meeting at our new location at The First United Methodist Church of Glendale. We will be in the Carlson Fellowship Center at 130 N. Kenwood Ave., Glendale, CA. I had a brain hiccup and gave the wrong street name at the November meeting. I apologize!

We have a lot of fun things planned for the coming year. The 2019 Opportunity Quilt will debut at Road to California! A Chinese New Year Challenge being orchestrated by Kathi Wilson will begin in January with final results due in March. And in February Tina Curran will introduce a fun, new Block of the Month.

The December meeting was a lot of fun. I have to express my gratitude to Nancy Turney and Flo Cohen who worked hard to make the room look festive and who managed the potluck. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Nancy and Flo had helpers, and I want to thank them also. Everyone working together makes for a lighter load! I want to thank Donna Smith of Burbank for donating fabric to the guild members. It added an element of fun to the meeting when the fabric was revealed and members were able to select something to take home with them.

I was impressed with the Block Exchange participation. Over 30 members brought candy blocks to exchange. A big thank you to Kathi Coleman Wilson for organizing the exchange and sending all of the participants home with 11 new blocks to match with their original block. I can't wait to see the results in future Show and Tell sessions!!

I am looking forward to the January speaker, Trudy Cleveland on photographing our quilts. Then there will be the Bus Trip to Road to California, which is always enjoyable. It is always more relaxing if someone else is driving, especially after the full day of excitement offered by Road to California.

January is the time of the year when we consider making resolutions for the new year, to do more of this or less of that. I want to piece more, quilt more, spend more time with good friends, laugh more often, and create more lasting memories! I also want less clutter in my sewing room!

I wish all of you the best in the coming year, and for you to have more of the good things life has to offer!

Happy New Year,

Tim Spinn
Glendale Quilt Guild President

Kathi Coleman Wilson and her holiday mug exchange table runner, which took 3 people to hold it!

Chinese New Year's Challenge

We are planning some fun and hoping you will participate. Here's how it works:

Attend the January Guild meeting and purchase for $5.00 a Chinese take-out container filled with:

- Quarter yard of Asian inspired fabric
- An extra special Fortune Cookie (you may have never seen one this fancy)
- Instructions for the Challenge

Make a 'quilt' and bring it to the March meeting. We define a "quilt" as 3 layers (front, back, batting) held together however you choose. The size can be whatever you like: anything from teeny-tiny mug rug to gigantic quilt. There will be prizes for everyone, Viewers' Choice awards, and if you make your quilt for Loving Hands we'll add an extra goodie for you.

Questions: Kathi Wilson 818 422-8798 - domehikr@aol.com

Stitches and Labyrinth Walk Opportunity Quilt Raffle

The Glendale Quilt Guild had a vendor booth at the Stitches So Cal 2018 event. Guild members who worked at the booth sold tickets for an opportunity to win the Labyrinth Walk quilt and two beautiful baskets filled with yarn. There were also several quilts for sale. The guild had an exhibit where the quilts from the Small Quilt Challenge from the Under the Big Top fundraiser were displayed. This was an exciting opportunity to reach a new audience, distribute guild information, and talk to the attendees about the Glendale Quilt Guild. Thank you to everyone who volunteered to work at the booth, with set up and take down, and for all who provided support in any way. We couldn't be successful without the support of our members.

Ticket sales continued through the November and December General Meetings. We earned $852.00 in ticket and quilt sales!

Winning tickets were drawn at the December Meeting. Hester Bell won the basket of yarn and accessories donated by Kathy Fogel. Alice Neal won the basket of yarn and accessories donated by Cindy Abrams. She purchased her ticket at Stitches So Cal 2018 and was very surprised to be a winner! Rasa Read was the big winner of the evening, taking home the Labyrinth Walk quilt donated by Tim Spinn, with beautiful quilting by Brandi Nalley. Congratulations to all of the winners!

~ Membership ~

Fifty-eight members signed in at our members only holiday party meeting.

New member Margot Ettl joined after being a visitor in November. We thank her neighbor, Leah Bessey, who invited her to come. Margot has been quilting about a month, but she has sewn for years and wants to make quilting her retirement hobby. Her quilting interests are charity quilts and art quilts. Margot says, "I had fun on a Monday and a Loving Hands Friday. Everyone was welcoming..." and that prompted her to join the Glendale Quilt Guild.

Look forward to another new member next month: Cindy Coleman, Craig's wife. Craig paid her membership dues already, and we gave the paperwork to her.

Raffle winners: blue tickets for attendance: Mary Jamora, Leanne Compean, and Peggy Schiffman.

Thirty-four members wore their badges, and two red tickets were awarded: Olga Chasco and Beth Hasenauer. Congratulations to all of you.

Membership rosters for 2018-2019 were available at both the November and this December meeting and are also on the website. We will be mailing those not yet picked up.

Apologies that the December birthdays were omitted last month and January birthdays shown instead, so this month we will send best wishes to both December and January celebrants.

Pat Golditch and Karen Millman
Membership Co-Chairs

Hester Bell is New Website Liaison

Kathy Fogel has passed along the job of website liaison to me. Please send ideas and suggestions to improve the website to Hester Bell at hbelle@rsabq.org. At Wednesday's meeting, I had requests to make it easier to find information and supply lists for workshops and easier to access the roster. Also send photos that could work well for the website. I will work on those two items and other ideas. Thanks, Hester

Happy Birthday!

Sorry – Elke forgot December's group and is including them here, as well as January's.

Happy belated birthday to December celebrants:

GQG DEAR JANE GROUP

Maggie Llamido is spearheading our own Dear Jane group of Janiacs. The Dear Janers will meet during the last Wednesday Sew of any given month. The next meeting is scheduled for January 30th. Please bring your background material because we have fabric to copy the 1800s look. Or bring your own combination and we will have fun making blocks.

If you have any questions, please contact: Maggie Llamido at maggieowl@gmail.com or 310-560-8208 or Elke Miyahara at elke.miyahara@gmail.com or 323-256-2152.

Loving Hands: GQG's Charity Division

The end of the year is always a busy season for everyone. GQG's quilters proved their energy is unbounded. We are happy to report that numerous quilt tops were pieced, bindings sewn on, flannel receiving blankets and finished quilts (and tops) donated and projects were taken home by these generous members: Joyce Li, Leah Bessey, An Burgess, Violet Bos, Crystal Dudley, Kathy Fogel, Denise Koch, Homa Asef, Cathy Euler, Peggy Schiffman, Joanne Brown, Nancy Wagner, Rosalie Manuel, Marie Watterlund, Mary Ann Kroening, Cindy Abrams, Alice Turner, Aviva Nizani, Kate Ung, Jolene Blanchard, Mary Furnish, Craig Coleman and Karen Millman. Kerri Stimpson, a member who has not been able to get to meetings for a few years stopped in to drop off three pieced tops. Tim Spinn donated a large floral quilt top, made by a friend, which he finished with borders and made a backing. Finishing up another project- last year's Cocoa Mugs block exchange- was Tina Curran. Tina shared, then donated(!) her "cuter than cute" quilt during Show and Tell and explained the process she used to design it, inspiring others. Then at the workshop, she donated the 'hot off the ironing board" 2018's Taffy Block Exchange. Is there a quilt raffle in our future?

A happy cacophony of conversation and laughter accompanied the LH workshop this month as participants stitched on labels, inspected quilts, created kits, trimmed quilts, made bindings, prepared patterns and cut blocks in preparation for the January 29th Camp Quilt event. (Look for more details elsewhere in this newsletter). If not for the California sunshine, you would have thought that we were at the North Pole instead of WAC. What a productive day! Workshop quilters included Leah Bessey, Doralee Dohnel, Annie Raycraft, Rosalee Manuel, Craig, Sharon Bishop, guest Margot Ettl, Cindy Tanaka, Cathy Euler, Kate Ung, Hester Bell, Mary Anne Kroening, Louise Rupp, Pat Goldtich, Annie Laurie Babson, and Chairs, An Burgess, Susan Edwards and Cindy Abrams.

Everyone's combined efforts this month enabled 42 LH quilts to be donated to the Paradise, CA Fire area families. Mary Anne Kroening made the delivery on December 21 possible. Thank you to everyone! GQG LH Quilters: Always remember that you are talented, you are appreciated, your work is valued, and you do make a difference.

Submitted by Susan Edwards, An Burgess and Cindy Abrams

Tina Curran and her Mug quilt, Tina showing her Taffy Block Exchange quilt and Craig Coleman with new batting, which he uses to quilt many, many Loving Hands quilts. Tina donated both of her quilts to Loving Hands and they were on display during the WAC December Holiday Tea on Tuesday, December 18th, 2018. Thank you both for your contributions!

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING REPORT

MINUTES OF THE GLENDALE QUILT GUILD EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

December 6, 2018

I. The meeting was called to order at 6:35 pm by President Spinn at the Glendale Woman's Athletic Club and a quorum was present. PRESENT: Tim Spinn-President; Crystal Dudley-Vice President; Mary Jamora-Treasurer; Beth Hasenauer-Recording Secretary; Sharon Bishop-Parliamentarian; Ellen Gray-Communications Secretary; Flo Cohen & Nancy Turney -Workshop Co-Chairperson; Pat Golditch & Karen Millman-Membership Co-Chairpersons; Rasa Reed-Fundraising 2019-2020; Susan Edwards & Cindy Abrams-Loving Hands Co-Chairpersons. NOT PRESENT: Jean Giacomelli and Alice Smith-Program Co-Chairpersons; An Burgess- Loving Hands Co-Chairperson; Elke Miyahara-Newsletter

II. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter. The incorrect street name was given in the newsletter for our new meeting location. It should be N. Kenwood Street. This will be updated.

III. BOARD and COMMITTEE REPORTS

Vice President/Dudley: Next SCCQG meeting January 12, 2019 in Irvine. Topic "How to Run a Successful Guild Meeting". Information on helping California Fire Victims was placed in the December newsletter.

Treasurer/Jamora: Presented November Treasurers report. Explained budget breakdown of yearly income and expenses. Our expenses will exceed income for the year. Fundraising is budgeted to make up this income shortfall so the guild ends the year with a balanced budget. Consider revising forms on how programs and workshops are budgeted as programs are more expensive. Each committee should verify monthly income/expenses to ensure accuracy. Audit committee will meet in January 2019.

Communications Secretary/Gray: Alice Smith is hospitalized recovering from a surgical procedure. Sandy Bradfield was in town to visit. Flo is celebrating her 50th wedding anniversary on 12/26. Let Ellen know of any information regarding our guild members.

Programs-Workshops/Cohen: 2019 brochure is complete and will be posted to the website and available for distribution at general meetings when back from the printers. 2019 Workshops need to be added to Bookwhen. January 2019 program Judy Cleveland "How to Photograph Quilts" No workshop. February program + workshop on photo transfer quilts and family history. A large fabric donation designated specifically for guild members will be distributed at the Dec. meeting as a holiday gift.

Membership/Golditch-Millman: Rosters being distributed. Mail rest after 2 months of distributing at meetings.

Newsletter/Spinn: Articles due 12/18. Please send Elke articles early if possible.

Fundraising 2019/Read: 2019 fundraising ideas – Bingo night open to the general public. Run two events in the spring and fall 2019. American Legion of La Crescenta has experience and can run a bingo night for us. Their building can hold up to 200 attendees. Feel we can raise between $2-4,000.00/session. Need prizes more reflective of the general public. Pursuing more information from the American Legion on the logistics but looks promising. Advantage is that it will require less overall preparatory work from guild members. Collecting items for fundraising- one Feather weight sewing machine and a collection of cutting mats.

Loving Hands/Abrams: Delivering a lot of quilts. Stock almost depleted. A lot of people participating. Scheduled workshops will be cutting fabric for camper quilts. Triangle quilts per Sandy Corbin's pattern. LH holiday party on Saturday 12/8.

IV. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

1. Website Liaison: Hester Bell taking over managing guild website from Kathy Fogel. Doing a review of the site. Send any comments to Tim.

2. Block of the Month to be run by Tina Curran. Theme: Houses. Same house pattern but different theme each month for 9 months March – November 2019.

3. Quilt Challenge: Kathi Wilson will run a Chinese New Years Challenge from January-March 2019. Create your own quilt using supplies provided for a small fee.

4. Trips: Road2CA bus Saturday 1/26 leave 8:30 – 4:30pm. Cost: $20.00. Make one stop in Glendora. Sign-ups to begin at Dec. general meeting.

5. 501 c 3 update. Exempt from federal income tax. Board approved present Donor Receipt form for use. Printed in duplicate carbon forms. Donor gets a copy and we keep a copy to track what is donated. Receipts given for >$250.00 in donations. Don't have to pay sales tax. Items sold with intent of making money solely for the guild is tax exempt because the money we take in we put back into our charitable endeavors. If the guild sells items for someone else where that individual receives any of that income then the Guild must charge and pay taxes on those items. (ie: Someone asks us to sell a quilt for them & money goes back to them. The guild needs to pay taxes on that item). Only need to charge sales tax on new items not donated items or items made from donated items.

6. Membership dues increase. Average dues of other SCCQG member guilds is $35.00-40.00. Dues cannot cover all the guild expenses. No dues increase since 2010. Monthly program workshops and Loving Hands workshops cost about $100/session to run. Program speakers run at least $300.00. Facility charges for monthly meetings keep increasing.

Motion: Raise annual dues from $30.00 to $40.00/year effective next fiscal year beginning July 2019.

Discussion of motion:

-Rationale for increase: $10.00 increase brings us in line with the majority of quilt guilds in our service area. We cannot pay all of our expenses. This is where fundraising plays a crucial role and why we worked so hard to get tax exempt status.

-Concern about members on fixed incomes being able to manage a dues increase. Consider initiating a scholarship fund to provide assistance to these members so they can remain guild members

- the last dues increase was 8 years ago, moving forward the guild should address a dues increase every other year so increases can be more incremental going forward.

-Several members feel comfortable with a $10.00 increase other Board members feel it is not enough to address the budgetary issues the guild faces. A $10 increase is less than $1.00/month. Our guild provides a lot of quality programs and workshops for our members. Consensus that $20.00 is too big an increase at this time.

Amended Motion presented: Increase annual dues to $45.00/year effective next fiscal year beginning July 2019. Motion seconded. Programs has no vote as both co-chairpersons not present. Each elected Board position has one vote. Vote: 5 in favor; 3 against. Motion carries.

Motion presented to charge those guild members receiving print copies of newsletter.

Discussion: Budgeted amount $300. A third of cost will be covered by voluntary donations. As part of membership guild members receive a newsletter and a roster. Motion was withdrawn.

Motion: Raise affiliate membership dues to $60.00. Motion was seconded.

Discussion: Current affiliate dues are $40.00 and will be less than new membership dues if approved. This level may be too high to attract other local affiliates.

Amended motion presented: Raise affiliate fees to be the same as membership dues. Seconded. Vote: Unanimous in favor.

Per Standing rules in the bylaws, the motions will be verbally presented to the membership, then published in the newsletter, followed by membership vote.

VI. The meeting adjourned at 8:45 pm.

Beth Hasenauer, Recording Secretary

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING REPORT

Minutes of the Glendale Quilt Guild General Membership Meeting December 12, 2018

- I. The meeting was called to order by President Spinn at 6:30 p.m. at the Goodwill Community Center.
II. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter. The street name for our new meeting location was incorrect. It should be North Kenwood Street.

III. ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dues increase. Board voted at its December meeting to recommend to the membership an increase in membership dues from $30.00 to $45.00 effective July 2019, the beginning of our next fiscal year. Affiliate dues will also be raised equal to the new membership rate of $45.00. Per our Bylaws, notice of the dues increase will be printed in the January Newsletter and then voted on by the membership at the January 2019 General Meeting.

Discussion: Dues were last raised in 2010. Since that time our membership has decreased resulting in an approximate loss of $1250.00 in income and our fixed costs for insurance, rent paid for our meeting space and storage have all increased significantly. These are fixed operating costs. Dues cannot reasonably cover all the guild costs; the guild attempts to rely on yearly fundraising to cover the budget gap between income and expenses without dipping into our reserves.

Membership requested a concise 1 page handout displaying a summary of income/expenses and the change in these amounts from 2010 to present.

Donations for Fire Victims: Sewing Arts Center in Santa Monica Offer a 50% discount on precuts if purchaser makes and returns a quilt top to the store by 12/31. They will then finish the quilts and donate them to fire victims. Nancy Wagner reported that 40 big garbage bags of hygiene materials, bedding, clothing and money was collected and driven up to Paradise. There will be more calls to help out the fire victims as time goes on.

Road2CA Bus: Saturday January 26. Cost $20.00. Sign up for the bus!!

Fabric donation: Donna Smith from Burbank donated fabric to members to take at this meeting. Large 3-4 yard cuts.

Under Big Top: Elke Miyahara presented award ribbons made by Sharon Bishop for Under Big Top Little Quilt Top Challenge, Hon Mention: Tim Spinn, 3rd place: Karen Millman, . 2nd place: Crystal Dudley, 1st place: Kathi Wilson . A presentation was made to Kathi Wilson and Craig Coleman in recognition and appreciation of a job well done with the Under the Big Top fundraiser.

GQG Website: Hester Bell is the new Web mistress. She is here with her laptop, Talk with her about any changes for the Guild website.

IV. BOARD REPORTS

Vice President/Dudley: Next SCCQG meeting January 12 in Irvine on how to run an effective Guild meeting.

Treasurer/Jamora: November treasurers report was presented.

Communications Secretary/Gray: Alice Smith was hospitalized and is recovering from surgery. Sandy Bradfield was in town. Flo Cohen is celebrating her 50th wedding anniversary. Send Ellen any news/updates

Newsletter/Miyahara: Newsletter items due on 12/18. Try to hand items in early if possible.

Programs & Workshops/Cohen-Turney: Brochure at the printer. Handout summarizing Programs/Workshops for Jan – March 2019 distributed. January program on How to Photograph your Quilt -there is no Jan. workshop. February program and workshop on family history quilts and photo transfer. Workshop fee $40 unless taught by our own GQG members who are not professional quilt teacher then the workshop fee will be $15.00.

Membership/Golditch-Millman: 58 people signed in.

Fundraising 2019/Read: Working hard to get Opportunity quilt ready for its debut at Road2CA. Considering out of box fundraising ideas for 2019. More to come.

Loving Hands/Abrams/Burgess/Edwards: 36 tops finished for this meeting. LH workshop this Friday 12/14. We will donate some quilts from this workshop to Paradise.

Chinese New Year Quilt Challenge/Wilson: Create your own quilt using contents from Chinese takeout boxes (cost $5.00) Quilt inspiration is to come from fortune cookie. Many gifts to win if you make and submit a quilt. Challenge will run from Jan - March

V. Show and Tell

VI. Buffet holiday dinner Distribution of holiday blocks to participants, member selection from donated fabric stash.

VII. Opportunity Basket Drawing : Drawing for 2 yarn baskets and Labyrinth quilt first displayed at Stitches event. Basket #3 donated by Kathy Fogel won by Hester Bell, Basket #2 donated by Cindy Abrams won by Alice Neal (an attendee from Stitches event), Labyrinth quilt donated by Tim Spinn won by Rasa Reed.

VIII. The meeting was adjourned at 8:15p.m.

QUILTED COMICS & SCI-FI

Now's your chance to create a quilt that portrays your love of super heroes, villains, fantasy, comic book, or anime characters for a special exhibit that will be on display at the 2019 editions of both the International Quilt Festival and Comicpalooza (one of the country's largest pop culture conventions) in Houston, Texas at the George R. Brown Convention Center.

We are interested in sharing newly made quilts on these subjects and more, with any technique—piecing, appliqué, embroidery, photo transfer, wholecloth and/or manipulated fabric, etc. Let your inner bold heroine or nefarious no-good doer burst out on fabric!

IMPORTANT DATES:

January 5, 2019 - Entry forms go live
April 9, 2019 - Deadline for entries
April 18, 2019 - Notification of finalists
Arrive by April 30 - Deadline for receiving exhibition quilts in Houston

Sunshine and Shadows

Sunshine:

- Sandy Bradfield was visiting from Seattle and was able to visit some of her guild friends.
- Flo Cohen and her husband celebrated 50 years of marriage on December 26th!

Shadows:

- Alice Smith is recovering from surgery.

If you have any information for Sunshines or Shadows, please contact Ellen Gray at Ellen.Gray@disney.com

Save the Date: January 29 Quiltathon

Our 3rd Annual LHs Camp Quiltathon benefits the Seven Stars Foundation free summer camp for Gold Star Kids in Big Bear. These kids each have a family member who died during service to our country. Bring your sewing machine and sewing supplies, rotary cutter, 24" ruler and 11 1/2" or 12 1/2" square up ruler if you have one and join the fun. We will be piecing oversized, pre-prepped "Floating Triangle" blocks (see below), from 9:00AM to 9:00PM at the WAC Clubhouse. These will be made into bunk-sized quilts. Join us in making colorful, warm and snuggly quilts which campers take home at the end of the week. Last year's goal of 30 was exceeded. Let's do it again!

Come for an hour, part of the day or the whole day; whatever fits your schedule. A light lunch and dinner will be provided. Potluck surprises are welcome, but not required.

Sign up for this event at the January meeting, or by contacting Cindy Abrams. cindyabrams2010@aol.com (email) 818-621-1122 (call or text).

A Letter of Thanks...

Dear Loving Hands Glendale Quilt Guild,

Thank you for your amazing and generous donation of 30 beautiful quilts to the Alzheimer's Research Cooperative Study here at University of California in San Diego. Our study participants in both Alzheimer's trials and Downs Syndrome trials are the recipients of your kindness. ADCS works collaboratively with over two hundred academic and private institutions across the United States conducting clinical trials for Alzheimer's. Your beautiful quilts go to all of these deserving patients who volunteer as participants in our research studies.

Yesterday, I had the pleasure of meeting with Elke Miyahara and friend, Bethany, as we had arranged a meeting point for exchanging the quilts that were being donated for our Alzheimer's Disease and Down Syndrome clinical trial participants. Elke shared some of the Glendale Guild history, and mentioned your newsletter. I just opened your December issue. Wow, the commitment the Glendale Guild has made to your craft and by extension to those of us who are recipients is fantastic.

Your contributions to our AD community are dearly appreciated. A thank you to Cindy Abrams for arranging for the Quilt connection at ADCS, and to Elke for driving the distance to meet a complete stranger in the middle of San Diego county.

Warm holiday wishes to you all. Thank you again for the truly loving work and kindness that you each pass forward.

From the ADCS team,
