

General Meeting, October 14th via Zoom

Meet Misty Cole

Lecture: The Poison Bottle

Misty has been quilting about 16 years. She has a background in fine art, and came to quilting as a painter. She has a “whatever works” attitude about making things. She approaches each quilt almost as an engineering problem. Her thought process is “how can I use what I have to make what I don’t have”? She mixes traditional hand techniques with machine techniques, hand applique with fusibles, hand dyes with commercial fabrics and batiks. She loves the portability of hand sewing and will often choose to use handwork over machine work because it will be done faster if she takes it with her. Check out her website <https://www.mistycole.com/> and learn about other exhibits of Misty’s quilts.

The other big part of Misty’s life is being an educator. She has years of experience teaching in various capacities (private classes, homeschool co-ops, and religious education classes). Misty has two teenaged boys so she’s cooking all the time. She and her husband grew up in Louisiana. Her husband is a dairy scientist. The family moved to Bowie, Maryland 16 years ago so he could take a job for the USDA.

This lecture is an introduction to the quilt Misty designed and the absolutely fascinating history of the featured poison bottles. She will share many variations of the Poison Bottle Quilt and many unique ideas for embellishment. This lecture is great for October, leading up to Halloween, as she features many Halloween prints

Zoom information for October meeting is on page 10

October Workshop: Make the Poison Bottle Quilt

Saturday, October 17, 9am-3pm

Full Day Workshop (six hours) in which Misty will teach basic fusible applique techniques and various embellishment techniques used in the Poison Bottle Quilt. Embellishments include metal brads, Tsukineko fabric markers, Derwent Inktense Pencils and Blocks, freezer paper stencils and easy beading. Students can expect to make about 3-4 blocks during the workshop, which is enough to make table runner or a wall hanging. Or students may choose to complete all 12 blocks of the Poison Bottle Quilt. Misty will cover the quilt-as-you-go method she uses to finish this quilt. Each student must purchase a set of patterns for $10 (50% discount from website price.)

Once you have registered for the class a supply list and patterns will be emailed to you. Contact Caren Cooke Ryan for any questions. Sign up for this workshop on bookwhen.com

The President's Block

Hi all,

I am not saying anything about the weather this month. My previous complaints just made it worse! But now, it's fall, my favorite season... my favorite color pallet - warm, cozy autumnal hues. The less frenzied "season of giving" with Halloween candy and Thanksgiving gratitude. Weather turns crisp, cool and leaves change color (no, wait...that was growing up in Wyoming). Anyway, I love this time of year!

September and another successful Guild Meeting - thanks to all you far-flung quilting buddies in Kansas, Maine, Washington, Colorado and California. Thanks to contributors and meeting managers Tina, Tim and Beth. Thank you, Patricia Belyea for an interesting presentation. With Yukata cotton fabric, both vintage and current, the one-of-a-kind highly artistic, hands-on process used to create the fabric, plus Japanese quilting insights, Patricia walked us through fascinating cultural similarities and differences between Japanese and other quilters.

Quilting cultures are linked by a love of quilting. Patricia's pictures from Tokyo Quilt Show, world's largest, reflected how we all love our Shows. However, no classes are offered there. When Patricia teaches in Japan, her students are "sensei" - master teachers who in turn teach their students. Quilters I know love to learn from different instructors. Lately, Global Quilt Connections hosted webinars highlighting 100 teachers with 1,000+ viewers through Zoom and You Tube ... and more to come. We love variety! Patricia's unique approach to quilting travels made this enjoyable.

The "Helping-out" Guild Award 🏆 to Sharon Bishop, Ellen Gray and Beth Hasenauer, each took a month to be acting Recording Secretary at the Board and Guild Meetings. Thank you, your service is greatly appreciated. Super idea for a volunteer. My begging, pleading, cajoling haven't worked. No volunteers have appeared to fill the Board vacancies. So now, I will just be sad ...but ever hopeful. Anyone willing to help? Here is this month's look at our New Ways of Adapting progress:

1. New ways to Tailor our Traditions:
 - Wednesday and Saturday Virtual Sew Days are now established.
 - Our 3rd General Zoom Meeting had another outside Presenter
 - Elke (with her assistant Julie) located at the WAC Clubhouse demonstrating how to take the "Yikes" out of working with Stripes!
2. New Tools to Enhance Connections: Next Tech Team meeting will be Tuesday, October 20th
3. Adapting our Charitable Works: WAC Drop-off continues on the 1st and 3rd Friday
4. New Fundraising Ideas: Tina took our Super Bloom Opportunity Quilt to the outdoor Santa Clarita Quilt Guild, raised $100 in tickets with some pattern sales as well.

Stay safe and above all,  kind!
Mary

Sunshine & Shadows

It is with much sadness that I must report that Colleen Shier's sister passed away as did Maria Rodriguez's sister. In addition, former member Bev Van Cleave has passed away.

Hopefully the news will be better next month and the weather cooler, especially as we head into the Holidays.

Stay safe,

Sharon Bishop, Communications Secretary

Social Media

We would like to promote our guild by sharing pictures of your quilts on our social media platforms. For Facebook please send photos to Beth at bhasenauer57@gmail.com. For Instagram please send photos to Rebecca at rebecca.fletcher11@gmail.com. Specify if you would like to be credited with your first name, last initial or just noted as a guild member. Either way is fine. A brief one or two-sentence backstory or anecdote is intriguing and interesting to share with viewers.

If you have an Instagram account and want a link to your account shared with your photo send us the info. You can tag your own quilting related posts with #glendalequiltguild and include a link to our page @glendale_quilt_guild. For Instagram, square pictures are best, but we can edit the size. IG pictures should only be of your quilts or related sewn items, no people please.

October photo requests: seasonal quilts for Halloween or autumn, but all quilt pictures welcome.

Wednesday Virtual Sew Day

Virtual Sew Days are turning out to be a wonderful way for members to keep in touch with their quilting community. People were coming and going all day, chatting about finishing old projects and starting new ones. We had some very special visitors, Kate and Roger from Colorado and Lynn and Ibbey from Kansas. On Wednesday, August 26, these quilters and sewers were in virtual attendance: Marie Watterlond, Joyce Wilkinson, Kate Ung and Roger Velarde, Nancy Turney, Tim Spinn, Donna Ryan, Caren Ryan, Louise Rupp, Ibbey Rollert, Aviva Nizani, Denise Koch, Rebecca Fletcher, Lynn Droege, Leann Compton, Flo Cohen, Monica Carrillo, Jackie Carlos and friend Helen, Hester Bell, Homa Asef, and Cindy Abrams.

The 4th Wednesday Virtual Sew Day will be on the 28th in October. The Zoom session will be open from 9:30 to 4. Please come and say hello or stay all day and work on some holiday projects. The Zoom invitation will be sent by a blast a day or two before the event. Questions contact Hester Bell.

Saturday Virtual Sew Day

Thanks to everyone who joined, we had a successful launch to GQG's Saturday Virtual Sew Day on August 22, 2020. Guild members enjoyed visiting, getting to know each other, and working on projects.

Please join us for Saturday Virtual Sew on October 24, 2020. The Zoom meeting will remain open from 9:30 to 4:00. To give you flexibility to join part of the day or all day. You can even chat while you sew!

Two of my quilts have immigrated to England.

My friend, Manuel, has moved with his family to take a research job at Kew Gardens. When they got the key to their unfurnished apartment, the kids immediately collapsed for a nap in the corner. It is fun for me to think about Oli and Bella moving on with their lives and quilts far away in London.

Loving Hands: GQG's Charity Division

October has arrived and the energy of Loving Hands volunteers has not abated. This month thanks go to the following quilters, binders, piecers and pillow makers: Karen Millman, Leah Bessey, Alice Turner, Mary Ann Kroening, Jolene Blanchard, Hester Bell, Crystal Dudley, Elke Miyahara, Tina Curran, Nancy Turney, Mary Jamora, Margot Ettl, An Burgess and Dona Garding. Their combined donations yielded 29 quilts, 7 Veteran Post Surgery pillows, 23 Shriner's Hospital Teddy Bear quilts, and 3 flannel receiving blankets. Thank you to all. You are the heart and soul of Loving Hands.

Receiving blankets made by Jolene Blanchard

Pillowcases made by Naomi Robinson

A unique donation of cheerfully charming pillowcases came from Alice Turner's granddaughter, Naomi Robinson. While sheltering in place before heading off to college, Naomi cut and sewed twelve pillowcases with fabric purchased by Alice for her project. With a lot more time to spare, she used additional fabric provided by LH to produce twenty-two more for a grant today of 34 pillowcases. Wow! A hug and huge thanks goes to Naomi to whom I hope that we get to thank in person in the (near - fingers crossed) future.

Always remember, LH Volunteers, you are talented, you are appreciated, your work is valued, and you do make a difference. Stay healthy and be well.

Submitted by Cindy Abrams

As Loving Hands Chair, I will continue to be present on the first and third Fridays for drop off of donations and pre-arranged pick up of needed LH supplies at the Women's Athletic Club, 601 S Verdugo Road, Glendale, between 10:30 AM and 12:00 Noon. We will practice the safe guild lines as suggested by the State of CA, local LA County and City. If those dates do not work for you or you need something for a LH project, please contact me and I will do my best to arrange to meet you or deliver. cindyabrams2010@aol.com 818-621-1122

Deadline for entries for The Road2CA exhibit is October 1, 2020. Meet the Teacher will be via Zoom on April 10, 2021. Beth shared the timeline needed for having an Opportunity Quilt and suggested that because we are behind we might want to consider using an existing top or quilt. Tina will meet with Cindy to consider some possibilities we currently have.

Treasurer/Fogel: The August Treasurer's Report was given. So far, we are on track.

Communications Secretary/Bishop: Sad to report that Colleen Shier's sister passed away as did former Guild member Beverly Van Cleve.

Membership/Parker: New member gift packets, in lieu of a New Member Tea, are being prepared with help from Cindy. Membership renewals are coming in slowly. Reminder letters have been sent along with the renewal form. Last month we had two new members. Newsletters are being mailed to those who contributed money for help with printing. Hopefully this will keep more members in touch with Guild activities.

Programs and Workshops/Ryan: October speaker is Misty Cole, speaking on the history of poison bottles with a workshop making Poison Bottles using fusible applique techniques. 2020-2021 Programs that have been rescheduled are: February, Lloyd Askew, History of Sewing Machines, Workshop Servicing Your Featherweight; April, Ann Turley, Confessions of the Quilt Police, Workshop Making Faces Too; May, Lyn Brown, Pre-Cut Paradise, Workshop Staycation; August, Mary Ellen Sakai, Mary Ellen and Her Quilts, Workshop Machine Quilting.

The Board was polled and the following speakers were approved: Diane Harris, Make Extraordinary Scrap Quilts, Workshop Scrap Quilt; Nina Clotfelter, Threads, What's the Big Deal?, Workshop Zen Quilting; Maria Shell, Patchwork to Artwork-Journey of an Alaskan Quilt Maker, Workshop Linear Blocks-Line Into Shape; Lisa Walton, Leap and the Net Will Appear, Workshop Fantastic Fusion. Caren will work to schedule these speakers.

A proposal for a front-yard Halloween Quilt Display Drive-By on October 30th was submitted by Mary Ann Kroening and Karen Millman. The proposal was accepted.

Transition Tasks/Jamora: Transition of new officers should be complete. Procedures should be up-to-date.

Technology Update/Jamora: The Technology Team of Beth, Tina, Rebecca, Tim, Kathy F. and Hester, met in July. Projects were raised and research and changes have begun. One major goal is to up-grade our highly customized and costly website in order to grow and be able to offer more to members and non-members. Research will continue.

V. BOARD REPORTS

Vice President/Hasenauer: We will display our Opportunity Quilt at a parking lot event at Santa Clarita Guild. Time is quickly passing and we need to have a 2021 Opportunity Quilt. At this time, we are looking at suitable completed tops that can be finished in time for debut at Road2CA in January. SCCQG meets virtually in October focusing on the Transition of Guild Boards. Meet the Teacher will be in April via Zoom. Maria Schneider reported that the call for quilts with the theme Sheltering in Place for the Adams Square Glendale Arts Grants proposal yielded 19 quilts from 12 quilters, enough to submit the grant proposal.

Communications Secretary/Bishop: Sad to report that Colleen Shier's sister passed away as did former member Bev Van Cleave.

Newsletter/Gray: Reminder that articles are due September 15.

The October speaker is Misty Cole speaking about the history of Poison Bottles with a workshop making poison bottles using fusible techniques. November's speaker will be Diane Harris speaking about Extraordinary Scrap Quilts with a workshop on Scrap Quilts. Caren presented a questionnaire regarding the types of programs that members would like to see in the future.

Membership/Fletcher: Renewals are currently at 61% and we have two new members, both from Kansas, and four guests. Judy mailed out renewal reminders, which may account for the 20% increase over last month.

Loving Hands/Abrams: Loving Hands continues to produce items for distribution in spite of the pandemic. Cindy shared photos of challenge quilts by Dakota County Star Quilters honoring Suffragettes. The link to the complete collection will be shared with the Guild.

Virtual Sew Days/Fletcher: The 4th Wednesday and 4th Saturday Virtual Sew Days have been very successful. Everyone is invited to participate.

Halloween Yard Display/Jamora: Mary Ann Kroening and Karen Millman are coordinating a Halloween Yard Display Drive-by. Anyone interested in participating can contact Mary Ann. Mary Jamora offered her yard to anyone who would like to participate but either lives too far away or has no yard.

VI. SHOW AND TELL A presentation of photos of members' quilts were shown by Tim. Please get your photos to Tim each month no later than the Tuesday before the Guild meeting in order to be included in Show and Tell. Kathi Wilson shared a video of her new and improved quilt studio. Members are encouraged to send in photos of their quilt studios to share during Show and Tell.

VII. The meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Sharon Bishop, September Acting Recording Secretary

Membership

Our membership renewals have risen to 71%. Judy Parker mailed reminder letters with renewal forms to all of the members we hadn't heard from, which may have contributed to this membership boost. This speaks to the value of actual mail! If you are reading a hardcopy of this newsletter, but are not receiving electronic communications from the Guild, please call one of us on the Membership Committee so we can help you get reconnected and stay up to date.

Thank you to our affiliates who have all renewed their memberships in support of our guild. They did so despite the hardships that small businesses have endured this year. Please consider supporting them in return: Candy's Quiltworks in Northridge, Quiltn' For You in Newhall, and Sewing Machine Warehouse in North Hills. Their contact information is on the last page of this newsletter.

Our September Virtual Membership Meeting was well attended by 48 people. Six guests were able to join us. They were Rhoda Novak, Gloria Wong, Margie Towner, Kathy Hendry from neighboring Valley Quiltmakers Guild, Leila Fletcher, and Elizabeth Eastmond, our August presenter and workshop teacher.

We are excited to welcome new member Ibby Rollerts. She is the second person joining us from the Blue Valley Quilters Guild in Kansas. Ibby has been quilting for 20 years and says she is always learning ways to do things better and faster. She sent such a lovely introduction, I'm sharing it here, "I seem to have one foot in Traditional designs and the other in Modern, loving the familiarity of Traditional and following all the 'rules', but excited over how the Modern designs make me stretch in ways I'm uncomfortable with especially knowing there are no 'rules'. You'll find me working with brights mostly and almost always scrappy! I'm really looking forward to learning from all of you in the Glendale [Quilt] Guild and am so grateful for the welcome you've already extended to me." We are glad to have Ibby with us!

Thank you to Cindy Abrams for helping prepare new member welcome gifts. As health precautions prevented us from getting together for a New Member Tea this past spring, we have sent small gift packages to new members instead. Going forward these small packages will also be sent to people as they join the guild for the first time until the time we are able to come together in person again. In preparation for that day, Homa Asef has been making quilted nametags. It will be so nice to be able to share them again.

Best Regards from Your Membership Committee,
Rebecca Fletcher, Homa Asef, Judy Parker

Halloween Quilt Display

Because the 4th of July display of quilts was fun and inspiring, we suggest Halloween as another opportunity to view members' creativity. Many members have written to us that they really enjoyed this activity. Again, the quilts can be any size, just large enough for us to see from our cars. It is suggested that the drive by to admire quilts be held on Friday, October 30, the day before Halloween so as not to interfere with trick or treaters.

As before, if you would like to participate, e-mail Mary Ann at Kroening@sbcglobal.net to be added to the list of Halloween celebrants. That list will be available so your quilt friends can find your house and enjoy your interpretation. If you are concerned about being too far out of the Glendale area, there are members who would be happy to display your quilt(s) at their homes. Let us know about your needs or ability to include other quilters' creations with yours. Everyone who participates will get a flyer to hang. →
