The President's Block

Hi all,

Our Saturday, July 17th Pop-Up Fabric Sale was a smashing success in every way! I will let you read Kathi Wilson's newsletter article to get the details, but I would like to share a couple observations. We had a team that worked hard, had fun, ended tired, but so satisfied with the results. I was happy to hear positive comments from shoppers - "This is great, will you be here next week?"; "So much fun just seeing everyone and chatting."; "I can't believe I got this much fabric for $12!" Thanks to GQG members who shared the flyer on their social media. We had Westside and Beach cities, along with Arcadia, Pasadena and San Fernando and Santa Clarita guilds represented. Thanks to all who helped, shopped and supported the sale. Special shout-out to studio/shop owner Brie McWade for lending GQG the space at her shop/studio, Advisory Goods, for our sale. Brie and friend Taylor - another shop owner, were so helpful with shoppers and worker bees throughout the day. Quilters, seamstresses and crafters, now there's an auspicious triad.

The July 4th GQG Patriotic Quilt display was so much fun. Thanks to all who participated and shared your photos. If your neighborhood was anything like mine the display was well-appreciated. Tina and I sat in the shade for a bit, sipping a cool drink and greeting the walkers and other passers-by. Plenty of thumbs-up, car honks and "looks great" comments!

Beth Hasenauer, Caren Cooke Ryan and I attended the SCCQG quarterly Zoom meeting in July. The presentation was all about sharing how we find volunteers to cover all that needs to be done in our guilds. We moved to small zoom rooms to discuss the following three questions with other SoCal guilds:

- 1) What personally motivates you to volunteer? We all want our organizations to continue so we help out where we can, when you help through volunteering you get so much back in return.
- 2) How has your guild melded volunteer duties? Each guild I spoke with found volunteer recruitment and retention was problematic, some combined events with other local quilt guilds, or have been updating board positions or combining positions.
- 3) What process is used to match volunteers with tasks that motivate them? Direct contact calls, a team finds volunteers, sharing information through questionnaires and surveys, Friendship groups, buddies to help new members get involved, shadowing or partnering with current board members, being more specific about what each volunteer position will need to do.

Updating New Ways of Adapting:

1. Tailoring Traditions: The Pop-Up Fabric sale is a great example of this!
2. Enhancing Connections: Work on a hybrid In-Person and Zoom meeting plan is underway, fingers crossed that this new variant of Covid, does not slow things down too much.
3. Charitable Works: Another Loving Hands Workshop on Monday, August 2nd at WAC. Plan to drop-off or pick-up on during this workshop, this also includes your Lantern Blocks.
4. Fundraising Ideas: A nationwide Friday, August 20th on-line Dine-Out fundraiser is coming your way!

Stay cool, and STAY HEALTHY! And above all,  kind...Mary

Sunshine and Shadows

Elke Miyahara's mother, Liz Allwelt, turned 101 on July 15th, unfortunately, she fell and cut her scalp the next day. No broken bones and she left the ER laughing about her new "turban". She's at home and getting better every day.

Just forwarding a couple of photos for 4th July celebrations and Show and Tell.

This is a quilt I pieced for myself, I am determined to have a quilt for every major holiday to decorate my home. The beautiful quilting was done by Frances Rice-Farrand

I call it "Hoorah for the Red White and Blue".

Loving Hands: GQG's Charity Division

What a spectacular month we've had:

◆ 18 members spent our first in-person workshop labeling, inspecting and preparing backs to match with finished tops. Kate Ung arrived from Colorado with 56 quilts ready to bind! Thank you, Kate! She returns home with over 100 tops & backs to keep her quilting until December.

◆ Donations going out: who delivered, the agencies, what we provided:

▲ Tina Curran to Disney Family Cancer Center (40 lap quilts)

▲ Mary Jamora to Glendale Adventist (27 infant & child quilts and 89 receiving blankets)

▲ Bob Wilson to Pasadena Humane Society (20 dog & cat beds)

▲ Cindy Abrams to Shriner's Children's Hospital (43 Teddy Bear Quilts)

▲ Rebecca Fletcher to French General for The Navajo Quilt Project (15 boxes of fabric)

▲ Rebecca Fletcher to American Friends Service Committee (22 quilts for the South Los Angeles families who were victims of the recent fireworks explosion)

◆ HUGE Pop-Up Fabric Sale....a spectacular event that raised $1,869.00 to benefit Loving Hands. Our expenses include storage fees and a real need to provide batting to some of our prolific quilt makers and we're now in a great position to do that. Thank you to all who volunteered and to those who came to shop. A big shout out to Brie McWade for the generous use of her shop, AdvisoryGoods

◆ Donations coming in: Kathy Fogel, Karen Millman, Peggy Shiffman, Merylee Shaefer, Donna Ryan, Cathy Euler, Tim Spinn, Marie Watterlond, Anne Wilkins, Kate Ung, Joliene Blanchard, Cindy Abrams, Pat Golditch, Mary Ann Kroening, Tim Spinn, Marty Fasola, Susan Washburn & Leah Bessey. Other "silent angels" have dropped off their creations at WAC so I'm sure these are not all of the names(s). Please let me know if I missed crediting you.

More About Mel Beach

Mel Beach is a rock star in the quilting community. She is everywhere, and on all things, quilt related. At the start of the pandemic, she was part of the Global Quilt Connection organization that put together videos of quilters offering zoom classes and workshops. She is full of quilting energy that explodes into writing, stitching, promoting, advising, teaching etc. Mel's approach to her quilting is to be curious and ask, "What If?", "Why Not?" Mel has appeared on Quilting Arts TV and the Quilt Show with Alex Anderson. Check out her videos on YouTube and her own webpage.

If I want to know anything about the current quilting scene, I'd go to Mel for the information.

Her quilts have appeared in many quilt shows and won awards frequently. She is a member of six organizations and holds a volunteer position in three of them. Studio Art Quilt Associates, Vice President, Northern California Quilt Council, Secretary, Global Quilt Connection, Social Media/Advertising Coordinator, Southern California Quilt Council, San Jose Museum of Quilts & Textiles, Artist Member and Santa Clara Valley Quilt Association. Next year she is moving to president of Studio Art Quilt Associates. Congratulations! How does she do it? After reading about some of her quilting technique experiments, I think she must be very organized. Maybe we will learn the tricks this incredibly talented quilt artist has to accomplish so much and she is making such a lasting contribution to the quilting community.

Executive Board Meeting Report

GLENDALE QUILT GUILD EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING MINUTES JULY 8, 2021

I. The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m. by President Mary Jamora via Zoom and a quorum was present. Present: Mary Jamora, President; Beth Hasenauer, Vice President; Sharon Bishop, Recording Secretary; Elke Miyahara, Parliamentarian; Caren Ryan, Programs/Workshops; Rebecca Fletcher, Membership; Kathi Wilson, Loving Hands; Tina Curran, Virtual Ambassador; and Cindy Abrams. Not present were: Kathy Fogel, Treasurer; Kate Ung and Homa Asef, Membership; Ellen Gray, Newsletter and Tim Spinn, Advisor.

II. The minutes of the previous meeting were approved as printed in the Newsletter.

III. BOARD AND COMMITTEE REPORTS

Vice President/Hasenauer: The SCCQG meeting July 10 will focus on recruiting and retaining volunteers. A request to display our 2022 Opportunity Quilt at Road2CA has been submitted and we are waiting for confirmation. Road2CA 2022 will be Wednesday through Saturday. No more Sundays. Work is currently underway to reconcile and record sales and requests for tickets for the 2021 Opportunity Quilt that were included in membership renewals. We're still waiting for a response from the church regarding our General Meeting in September. We are working on having a hybrid meeting but are pursuing the means to use the WAC facilities as a back-up if needed.

Treasurer/Jamora: The June Treasurer's Report was given and surprisingly, the bottom line is that we are doing well considering the events of the past year.

Membership/Fletcher: Currently we have 131 members and a 45% rate of renewals. Rebecca will remind the membership about the renewal deadline of July 31st in order to be entered for the drawing to be held in September. Evette Gallo, former member has rejoined. Renewals continue to come in and include purchasing opportunity quilt tickets as well as some donations.

Newsletter/Miyahara: Ellen Gray is undergoing a kidney transplant so Elke will take over the Newsletter duties temporarily and asks that since she will be working from out-of-town, please get submissions in as early as possible but by July 20th at the latest.

Loving Hands/Kathi Wilson: The recent Loving Hands Day was a huge success. Eighteen workers inventoried 254 quilts, 35 heart pillows and 46 teddy bear quilts that were in storage as of July 1. The current goal is to prepare quilts from the large inventory of existing tops, help the membership understand the changing needs, and that we really cannot accommodate more unfinished tops. We need to work through the inventory of quilts, tops and fabric in storage. Kate Ung brought 56 quilts that she quilted on her long arm and is going to take back 100 quilts to quilt. The team was able to prepare 32 quilt tops with backs in addition to 11 Kate received directly from quilters. Quilt distribution in progress: 89 flannel blankets and 27 quilts to Glendale Adventist, Cindy is delivering teddy bear quilts to Shriner's Hospital and Tina is delivering to the Disney Cancer Center in Burbank. In an effort to use up leftovers, a contest is in the works for later this year that would be similar to the very successful Panelmania contest that we had a few years ago. There will be more information on this later.

In keeping with efforts to reduce our storage, we are looking forward to the huge Fabric Sale to be held July 17 in Sierra Madre. Help is welcome and members are encouraged to spread the word to other quilters. At the end of the sale, anything left will be taken by Mary Ann Kroening's movers and donated to Remainers.

The Lantern Block Exchange is set for August 2. The pattern and pertinent information are in the Newsletter.

Programs/Workshops/Ryan: Several dates of previously approved speakers/teachers needed to be rearranged due to conflict with Easter 2022. Thankfully Caren was able to juggle everything with an outcome that works. Caren is also working on plans to celebrate the Guild's 40th Anniversary February 2022.

IV. OLD BUSINESS

Proposed Fund Raiser/Abrams: August 20th was proposed for the Panda Express fund-raising opportunity. Place your order for pickup on Friday, August 20 available at Panda Express locations nationwide. Online orders only and you must apply the code 904281 in the coupon code box during online checkout and then Panda Express will donate 28% of sales. Valid for online orders only. A motion was made by Miyahara to approve the proposal. The motion was seconded by Hasenauer and passed unanimously. Panda Express provides a flyer that can be sent out electronically.

Bingo Night/Jamora: A date of October 23, 2021 was suggested but there is a conflict so Mary will consult with the Bingo contact to find a better date.

Website Redesign/Jamora: The first three sections of the initial layout has been reviewed and the committee will continue to work on refining it. The redesign is on target to be ready by Thanksgiving and go live by December 1, 2021.

V. The meeting adjourned at 7:39 p.m.

Sharon Bishop, Recording Secretary

VI. BOARD REPORTS

Vice President/Hasenauer: SCCQG Quarterly meeting held 7/10 was about volunteers and volunteerism. The group broke into breakout rooms to look at motivation to volunteer, team building and matching skills with jobs that need to be done. Take away from this to present specific volunteer opportunities as jobs with the specific details. Road to CA in person January 19-22, 2022 have put in our request for opportunity quilt display and we will need table staffing to sell tickets as well to meet our white glove obligation 20hrs divided into 2hr shifts, also will need help with the Bus to Road for the guild and organizing Quilts in the Atrium if our guild is selected for this display [Caren Ryan has offered to be the contact person]. 2021 Opportunity Quilt needs another volunteer to join our three-person team to promote the quilt at guilds, sell tickets and brainstorm about other venues we can display the quilt.

Treasurer/Fogel: Presented June [End of the Fiscal Year] Report. Income: 110% of what was budgeted for the year. BRAVO to US. Expenses 83% of what was budgeted. Primarily because we paid no rent and this will change in 2022. Started 2020-2021 fiscal year with a deficit of $6850.00. We ended the year reducing this deficit to $1100.00 dollars. Big thanks to all. Audit committee finish 2019-2020 report that will be presented in August.

Membership/Fletcher: 53% of members [total 131] have renewed. Renewals postmarked by 7/31 will be entered in a drawing for $45.00 towards a guild workshop. Evette Gallo former member has rejoined. Membership

We currently have 131 members. As of this writing, 53% of our members have renewed their memberships for the 2021-22 guild year. July 31st is the cut-off to be entered into our drawing for $45 toward a workshop hosted by the guild. Your checks must be postmarked by that date to be eligible. We will conduct the drawing at the September meeting in order to give the mail plenty of time to reach us.

If you miss the renewal raffle deadline, fear not, you will still be a winner, because, as always, your dues will continue to entitle you to the wonderful benefits of camaraderie, educational opportunities, community service and the many other activities our guild has to offer. There are friendships waiting to be formed and others ready to be strengthened. We are all winners when we are together!

We are so happy to welcome back returning member, Evette Gallo. She is joining us from Wisconsin. Many of you will remember her and her husband from their previous time in the guild when they lived in California. The rest of us look forward to getting to know her. Evette has said she will get involved as she is able to from afar. She also mentioned that if anyone is going to Wisconsin and able to bring tops, she might manage to convince her husband to longarm some quilts for us! He is currently very busy longarming for Quilts of Valor. It seems we might end up with a crew of long distance longarmers!

It's so nice when past members rejoin our guild. Once a member you are always a part of our quilting family.

If you have any questions, your membership team is here for you, Homa Asef, Rebecca Fletcher, Kate Ung
