

General Meeting, July 14th via Zoom

Welcome Colleen Wise: Hand of the Artist: Putting Myself into the Work

Colleen Wise says: "I didn't mean to be an artist. My education is in civil engineering and horticulture, not art. I'm really not that good at sewing either. So how did I end up as a quilt artist? The invention of the rotary cutter moved quilting from the Home Ec side of the hallway across to Geometry class--and it clicked.

Besides quilting, I am the kind of person who likes to set challenges for herself. I did the STP (Seattle to Portland bike ride--200 miles in 2 days) two years ago and the RAGBRAI (Register's Annual Great Bike Ride Across Iowa) five years ago. At age 50 I ran my first and only marathon. At 30 I swam from Rangitoto Island back to Auckland (2.5 miles). In college I swallowed 100 goldfish--and came in 3rd in a goldfish-swallowing competition. What's next?"

"Quilting is a two-dimensional medium, but Colleen likes to play with the illusion of three. Her quilts have a sense of depth that goes beyond the surface. Elements seem to float above the surface or recede into the depths of the quilt. She is inspired by walking through old cemeteries and studying the architecture of the headstones and the play of light on the granite. Colleen is fascinated by the stars and planets. These themes and more end up in her work. She creates illusion by casting shadows, and by doing so: she creates light."

I saw Colleen's (purple and green quilt, from her Botanical Series shown below) at Pacific International Quilt Festival. It was a stunner. When she was featured on Global Quilt Connection I was thrilled to be able to bring her talent to Glendale Quilt Guild. Let's learn how she puts the three dimensional look into her quilts. What message do her quilts have?

Being an artist means expressing myself — and that means revealing myself. As my body of work grows, I can see themes emerge that reveal the things that I find fascinating: botany, geometry, astronomy, old cemeteries, faith. Sometimes my quilts hold surprise messages that are only revealed under certain circumstances — a flash photo, say, or a red filter. Finally, there are secret messages in my quilts that I will tell you about but never reveal. What do your quilts reveal about you?

Zoom information for July 14th Meeting Will Be Sent via Email Blast

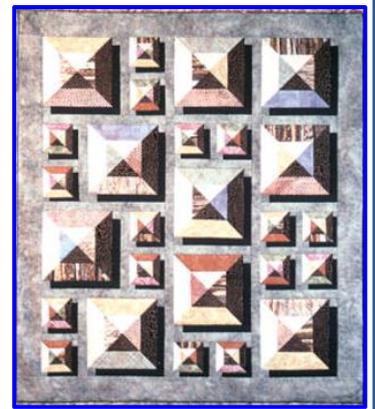

WORKSHOP: "Emerald City"

Saturday, July 24, (3 hrs) 9am to 12 noon and
July 31 (3 hrs), 9am to 12 noon

These blocks not only look like three-dimensional pyramids, they also appear to float above the surface of the quilt! Emerald City blocks are strip pieced and simple to construct. Careful attention to value will make the illusion appear. We'll also talk about shadows and how to choose fabrics to enhance that sense of three dimensions. So elegant and so easy--and so exciting to see the results!

Fee: $40, register on BookWhen. When you pay the fee of $40 you have paid for BOTH SESSIONS. You only need to sign up for 1st session to be enrolled in both.

The President's Block

Hi all,

I first heard about the importance the 1971 Whitney Museum of American Art Exhibition: Abstract Design in American Quilts from our January speaker, Maria Shell. I know, I'm a little late to the game here. Since then, it kept coming up; other presenters and instructors' commented on how the Whitney and follow-on exhibitions in the 70's changed the art world's view of quilt making, giving it recognition as an art form. That summer the Whitney hung quilts, some a century old, like paintings. Viewers could really see the pattern of geometry and color.

The response was huge and the Whitney extended the show's run by two months.

One story of interest, I found was that to select the 62 quilt finalists, they were laid out on the lawn of a Long Island home. The curators then went to the upper-most area of the home, the widow's walk, and yelled down instructions to create the order these quilts would be hung. These quilts from that Whitney exhibit now reside in the International Quilt Museum at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. They have the largest publicly held collection of quilts (3,500+) in the world. They date from the early 1700s, representing over 25 countries. Our GQG June program by speaker Meg Cox was an introduction to the Museum. They have curated four impressive virtual gallery walk-throughs - all related the 50th anniversary of the 1971 Whitney Exhibition. Definitely worth checking out at www.internationalquiltmuseum.org. Updating New Ways of Adapting:

1. Tailoring Traditions: Daytime Loving Hands Workshop makes a return on July 5th at WAC and there is a Pop-Up Fabric Sale on July 17th
2. Enhancing Connections: Website redesign is underway, will keep you posted!
3. Charitable Works: If you were planning a WAC Drop-Off on Friday, July 1st please come on Monday, July 5th instead. The Loving Hands Workshop will be underway and happy to help you with Drop-Offs and Pick-Ups.
4. Fundraising Ideas: A nationwide August Dine-Out fundraiser is on the way!

To sign-up for the 4th of July quilt Display, email Mary Ann Kroening at kroeningj@sbcglobal.net or Karen Millman at karenmillman5@gmail.com. Any other ideas? Just let us know.

Stay cool, safe and healthy!

And above all,  kind...Mary

JULY BOARD MEETING

Thursday July 8th, 6:30PM this will be a Zoom call. Details to follow via email Blast.

JULY GENERAL MEETING

Wednesday, July 14th will be a Zoom meeting. 6 PM Social Time, 6:30 meeting starts. Zoom information for July 14th meeting will be sent via email Blast

VIRTUAL SEW DAYS

Time for all days: 9:30 -4:30 PDT

Back by popular demand will be the fourth Wednesday virtual sew (that day had been switched briefly to a Tuesday in June). Please join us, stay as long or as little as you'd like. Sewing is not required. It's a nice way to see each other and catch up. The Zoom link will be in each week's eblast. If you have any questions, please contact Rebecca Fletcher. Thank you to Hester Bell who is retiring from hosting. She stepped up and volunteered for that position last year, becoming our very first virtual sew host. Her efforts enabled us to stay connected when circumstances kept us physically apart. Now we regularly enjoy time with people all across the country. Thank you, Hester, for paving the way.

Tuesday, July 6, hosted by Kate Ung

Tuesday, July 13, hosted by Nancy Turney

Tuesday, July 20, hosted by Nancy Turney

Saturday, July 24, hosted by Tim Spinn

Wednesday, July 28, hosted by Rebecca Fletcher

The Zoom sign in information will be sent in a blast a few days before the Virtual Sew Day.

HELP SOLVE MYSTERY

Help Kathi solve the mystery. Who pieced this quilt top for Loving Hands? If you know, please email Kathi Wilson.

Social Media

Would you like to see your quilts in lights?! (At least lit on computer, tablet or phone screens.) Then send your pictures to Beth Hasenauer and Rebecca Fletcher for Facebook and Instagram respectively. We want to share your work with the world and promote our guild. Remember: good light and nice backgrounds if any are visible. A square format is helpful for Instagram.

We want to thank all of the dedicated members who regularly support our accounts by following them, liking the posts and sharing their pictures. Let's grow this circle. Tell your friends to look for Glendale Quilt Guild, Inc. on Facebook and @glendale_quilt_guild on Instagram.

Here is a very special thank you to the retiring Loving Hands Chairperson, Cindy Abrams, for taking and sharing so many pictures of Loving Hands quilts for GQG's social media—especially since she doesn't even have social media accounts of her own! It was no small effort. She elevated the styling of our photographs by bringing them outside and setting up attractive displays. She even inspired a next door neighbor who helped by sharing her yard for more variety and taking some of the glamour shots. It was a labor of love and we appreciate it.

Sunshine and Shadows

Roger completed 3rd Grade and did it totally remotely. Congratulations Roger!

We heard from former member Evette Gallo who moved to Eagle River Wisconsin 3 years ago. She was looking for suggestions/ideas on how her current Guild members could reconnect after being shut down for so long. You may remember that her husband Lou made the quilt hangers used for the design walls at WAC and did a lot of quilting for Loving Hands. He is still long arm quilting for Quilts of Valor.

Crystal Dudley had carpal tunnel surgery but is recovering nicely.

Susan Edwards lost her brother-in-law after a battle with cancer and then, sadly, lost her step-son unexpectedly. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Susan and her husband.

Mary Ann Kroening had another go-round with Afib. Hopefully she is doing better now.

Summer is definitely here and it looks like it is here to stay. Kate Ung reported that it has finally stopped snowing in Colorado!

Stay cool and stay safe,
Sharon Bishop, Communications Secretary

Loving Hands: GQG's Charity Division

"The Loving Hands branch of the Glendale Quilt Guild provides members a chance to give back to our community by providing quilts and related items to meet critical needs". That says it all, doesn't it? We've managed to do that under these very trying circumstances and we are finally able to come back together to enjoy our Loving Hands Workshop Days in person as a community of generous quilters!

We first need to give thanks, love and a virtual hug to our fearless leader, Cindy Abrams, who not only managed Loving Hands with wit, enthusiasm & incredible energy these past few years but through the challenges of 2020 and beyond!

This past month completed quilts were donated by: Karen Millman, Margot Etta, Elke Miyahara, Mary Jamora, Kathy Fogel, Denise Koch, Joliene Blanchard, Elvie Quintos, Kathi Coleman Wilson and Cathy Sandhoefner. Crystal Dudley and Leah Bessey each made a collection of Teddy Bear quilts. Violet Bos completed tops.

Beth Hasenauer, Acting Recording Secretary

Membership

Welcome to our newest member, Cathy Matthews-Sandhoefner, who joins us from Anaheim, California. She discovered our guild through her good friend Kathi Wilson, and has already been donating quilts to Loving Hands. Cathy began sewing clothes for her Troll dolls at age five. As her skills improved she fashioned outfits for Barbies. She comes from a long line of quilters and grew up seeing bed quilts. Her grandma had already taught her to knit when she expanded her lessons to include quilts. Cathy remembers a lot of tracing around cardboard templates. That first quilt was finished and returned to her by her grandma who incorporated Cathy's then favorite color, purple. Cathy continued sewing, worked at Cloth World, and made clothes for her children and store displays. When she got a Gammill she incorporated machine quilting. We look forward to getting to know Cathy and seeing her work.

With Cathy's membership we now have 129 members—hooray!

Membership Renewal Raffle — It is membership renewal time. Our guild year runs from July 1-June 30. This year we are holding a raffle for all members who renew by July 31st. If your application is postmarked or otherwise received by that date you will be entered to win a free GQG workshop up to $45.00 in value. Renewal applications are available in this newsletter, on our website and in the eblast. If you need a form mailed to you please contact Rebecca Fletcher.

AS OF THIS WRITING WE HAVE 7.9% OF MEMBERS RENEWED. LET'S RAISE THAT PERCENTAGE ON OUR THERMOMETER!

A huge thank you to Judy Parker who has been a Membership Co-Chair for the past two years. She has handled the database heavy lifting and many other tasks. Now she will have more time to devote to quilting!

Kate Ung has joined the Membership Team and has the notable distinction of becoming the first Virtual Board Member! Her enthusiasm and computer skills are great benefits. We are so glad she's with us!

Thank you to all members for being a part of our wonderful community, Rebecca Fletcher, Kate Ung, and Homa Asef

Show and Tell

Marie Watterlond: This was going to be a “see how cute these blocks are!” . . . (and they are cute) instead, it's a warning to check your fabrics, especially black, before starting a project! Black dyes can be highly acid and black fabric is prone to rotting. This piece had a nice hand and I never thought to stress-test it! It went into the dog-bed scrap bag but may yet make it to the trash

Show and Tell

Kathy Fogel: finished a quilt for Loving Hands from her BOM Blocks with a fun sashing/border treatment.

Tina Curran: designed this ice cream cone quilt for a new nephew.

Marie Watterlond:

On a happier note, this is my BOM quilt top.

Tim Spinn's: sisters surprised him with this quilt on his birthday. It is a pattern by McKenna Ryan. The scenes are created with fusible appliqué
