November 2021

General Meeting, November 10th via Zoom at 6:30 pm

NOVEMBER 10TH LECTURE

We are excited to welcome Michelle Banton of Little Pup Designs. She will be lecturing on:

“COTTON TO CONSUMER-THE JOURNEY OF A COTTON BOLL FROM THE FIELD TO YOUR LOCAL QUILT SHOP”

We welcome guests to join us. At this time GUESTS ARE FREE!

Michelle has been quilting and planning events for over 25 years. Describing herself as a Human Quilt Sampler, Michelle has worked in all aspects of event planning from guild shows to regional quilt festivals. She attends International Quilt Market as an Industry Professional and has worked closely with several vendors. She was a fabric sales rep for a year - learned so much about a whole aspect of the industry, but decided sales was not her "thing". She organized and facilitated an annual "Meet the Teachers" event at the New England Quilt Museum in Lowell, MA for over 10 years
Other interesting facts: She likes traveling, kayaking, owns a Havanese.

Michelle, is a Certified Gem Affiliate for MJ Kinman's technique and patterns. It's a really fun process and it's awesome to see how the gemstones all come together with the different fabric colors and values. MJ has designed them to really come to life.

No Workshop this month

The President's Block

Hi All,

Fall revives me, it is the start of my new year. Maybe I never got over that feeling when school starts after what always seemed to be a long, hot summer break. I have been loving our sprinkling of cool and milder weather, some itty-bitty rain showers and the canyon trees with beautiful autumn leaf color. And then there's two of my favorite holidays: #1 Thanksgiving & #2 Halloween (which really ties with July 4th). What's not to like about that!

I promised a commitment report on starting my 100 days of free motion quilting practice. Not happening. Seems I have a commitment that interferes slightly...my Guild activities. That is the commitment I can really get behind. It wasn't a total free motion failure, I did use the Sweet 16 to create my version of free motion - tracing a paper pattern of holly leaves and berries. I definitely excited to see that come to life!

How our New Ways of Adapting Trending?

1. Tailoring Traditions: In October, I watched the WAC Quilter's Department hybrid meeting - in-person and Zoom. It went well, and we will be ready for a January try-out!
2. Enhancing Connections: We had two versions of the Workshop in October - one at WAC and one on Zoom. Fun to check in with each other mid-day to see how things were going. Thank you Kate for hosting on Zoom, Kathi for prepping the Layer Cake surprises and Caren for the prizes!

We had two more reviews of the new website and are finishing up getting photos in the archives. Exciting! Maria's been great getting changes and corrections done so we are close.

3. Charitable Works: Recently quilts went out to Caldor (Grizzly Flats) Fire victims and flannel quilts and blankets to the Glendale Adventist neonatal nursery. Lots more going on to get holiday quilts ready.
4. Fundraising Ideas: We were at the Montrose Rose Arts and Crafts Festival - what fun! We had a great day meeting local and not so local people who appreciate crafts like GQG does. Thanks to all the wonderful Volunteers - Beth H, Flo C, Jackie C, Susan W, Denise K, Monica C, Hester B, Kathy F, Judy P, Andrea T, Maria S.

For me, this month really sets my focus on gratitude more than any other month. Dia de los Muertos, a remembrance celebration of gratitude for loved ones no longer with us - my mom, grandparents, aunts and beloved friend, for them, I am grateful. Veteran's Day reminds me of the sacrifices in service to our country of my son and his father, my brothers and dad, uncles, grandfather and four nephews, for that, I am grateful. Then the mistress of gratitude...Thanksgiving! Whether you celebrate with a large boisterous family or in simple, quiet solitude - enjoy your day. Poet Rebecca del Rio in the last line of her poem, Arms Full wrote, "What if the beat we hear, when we are finally quiet is simply this: Thank you. Thank you. Thank you."

Continue to "bee" safe, wear your mask and look forward, gratefully. You have all made it through so much... Happy Thanksgiving!

Above all,  kind...Mary

Sunshine and Shadows

Welcome back Ellen Gray. It was nice to see you at our last Zoom meeting. More good news I'm happy to report that Leanne Compean is feeling much better and having the Dodger's beat the Giants probably helped her feel even better.

I'm sorry to report that Dona Garding was rear ended last month while stopped in her car at a signal. She has not been feeling well since and has undergone several tests.

Tim Spinn has not been feeling well since about Labor Day and is undergoing tests to find out what is causing it.

Finally, I'm sorry to report that former member Frances Brannon has passed away. Our sympathies to her family.

The Holidays are upon us so please keep our ailing members in your thoughts and please remember to let me know of any news be it Sunshine or Shadows.

Quilts by Founder Carol A.:

Left to right:

I received a series of photos from Carol A., GQG Founder: This is the first small quilt I made. It's a sampler of star patterns that she was teaching at the time, in the early 80's. She did quilt, and bind off the edges.

This is the Irish chain she made for my in-laws 50th Anniversary! Made in 1984

This is the schoolhouse quilt she made for the Red Schoolhouse of Ballard Elementary School to honor it's 100th year anniversary of continuous use! Made in 1985. There were 20 blocks and each house is a different red print, as is the arrow border. It took a long time to gather the red prints! She did make a miniature of the Schoolhouse quilt that passed on to Kathi W. for a fundraising event.

2021 Holiday Block Exchange - "Trees That Sparkle"

It's an easy, wonky, kinda' glitzy, "stack & whack" block.

Make 20 blocks (you will have 10 with lighter trees and 10 with darker trees)

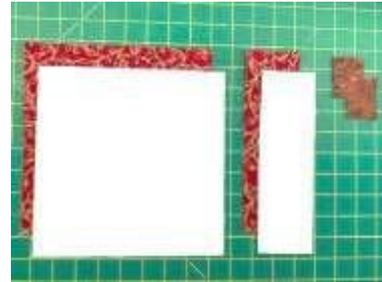

Save 2 blocks (1 lighter tree, 1 darker tree)

Turn in remaining 18 blocks at the Loving Hands Work Party on Monday, November 1st 9:00am-3:00pm at WAC, or mail to Kathi Wilson by that date.

Pick up your delightful, exchanged 18 blocks at the Loving Hands Work Party on Monday, December 6th 9:00am-3:00pm at WAC, or Kathi Wilson will mail to you.

Questions please contact Kathi Coleman Wilson 818 422-8798 or domehikr@aol.com

1)

Start with 2 contrasting fabrics (1 lighter & 1 darker). Please use rich reds, greens, golds, champagne or white/white-on-white, and brown for the trunk. (This is NOT the time to use holiday conversation prints with Santa or Snowmen, etc.)

Two Squares: $8\frac{1}{2}'' \times 8\frac{1}{2}''$
 Two Strips: $2'' \times 8\frac{1}{2}''$
 Two Brown rectangles: $1\frac{1}{2}'' \times 2''$

2)

Stack two $8\frac{1}{2}'' \times 8\frac{1}{2}''$ contrasting squares on top of each other.

Make a diagonal cut at least 1" away from the bottom right corner

3)

Pull the fabric from the 1st cut away. Make 2nd cut in the other direction.

Cut the 2" strip in half

4)

Swap out tree piece and match with the contrasting background. Sew along raw edges. Top & bottom may not line up.

5)

Square off the bottom so the edges are straight

6)

Sew $2'' \times 4\frac{1}{2}''$ strips on either side of trunk piece. Strips are longer to allow room to center trunk under the tree.

Press seams toward the trunk.

7)

Please leave Finished Block UNTRIMMED.
