

Glendale Quilt Show scheduled for March 28, 29, 2020 is postponed.

Dear Quilting Friends,

We want to let you know about the Glendale Quilt Guild's response to the rapidly changing COVID-19 situation, with the focus on guarding the safety and well-being of our community.

On March 11, 2020 the members of the Glendale Quilt Guild voted to postpone the March 2020 Glendale Quilt Show. We will be posting a new date for the Glendale Quilt Show on our website soon. Please refer to our website for updates: www.glendalequiltguild.org.

The decision by the Glendale Quilt Guild is supported by the California Department of Health Guidelines issued on March 12, 2020 which recommends cancelling or postponing large gatherings that include 250 people or more. Link to official document:

For the safety of everyone at Glendale Quilt Guild meetings, we ask that you please:

- Stay at home when sick and seek medical attention when needed.
- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds.
- Cough into a tissue and immediately dispose of it.
- Avoid close contact with people who are sick
- Avoid touching eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands
- Avoid shaking hands and instead use an alternative greeting.

To contact us, please email: info@glendalequiltguild.org

Thank you.
